Antioch's emergency service providers have been on the job for almost a century

Proud firefighters and rescue squad volunteers turned out in June, 1943 for a picture of themselves and the equipment they had assembled. The men beside the rescue squad vehicle, however, were still two weeks from receiving one of their more valued assets. It would cost them $100.

The firefighters were about 75 percent through a year in which they would respond to 13 Antioch fires threatening $146,000 worth of property. The actual losses would be $5,000.

For firefighters and rescue squad personnel, the equipment, training, and community support had been dearly won over decades of consistent achievement. That had not always been the case.

"There were three main fires in Antioch," Ainsley Wonderling of the Lakes Region Historical Society told a group at the Antioch Public Library Jan. 14. She was discussing the history of downtown Antioch and mentioned downtown fires that had occurred more than 100 years ago. "They only had a little hand-pumper," she said of the equipment available in those days.

The Antioch News wrote seven days after the April 2, 1891 fire: "As we look at the portion of our beautiful little village made desolate by the recent fire, we wonder if our people need any more palpable evidence of the necessity of fire protection."

The next two major fires were in 1903 and 1904.

However, in 1905, Antioch started a public water system and on March 13, 1913 the volunteer fire department was formed.

Through the decades, area residents have created a series of public safety organizations of which there are now three: 1st Fire Protection District Antioch Fire Department, the Antioch Police Department, and the Antioch Rescue Squad. The Antioch Rescue Squad was born in and torn from the Fire Department. It was the first one established in the State of Illinois.

By 1979, fire fighters and rescue personnel were able to move to their present location on Holbek Drive. Police services, however, were cobbled together into different parts of a twenty-five year old building and the old Moose Lodge. By 1997, changes to village development patterns, increasing population and technology had forced elected officials to consider a referendum to improve public safety.

On March 17, 1998, Antioch will vote once again on a Public Safety Referendum. The question is about the need for a new east side fire station east of the Wisconsin Central railroad tracks and a new public safety building that meets the needs of a modern police department. The question put to voters is whether or not to issue $2.5 million in general obligation bonds to build a public safety building and purchase fire safety equipment.

Village officials will host a Feb. 23 meeting at 7:30 p.m. to discuss information about the proposed building plans as well as the cost of structures and equipment to be purchased if

Village to review senior housing proposal

On agenda for Feb. 2 meeting

By KENNETH PATCHEN
Staff Reporter

The Antioch Village Board will review a senior housing proposal at Monday's village board meeting and may act on the recommendation of the plan commission and zoning board of appeals.

The Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals voted Jan. 22 to grant a zoning variation request to allow construction of a 38-unit senior citizen residential facility at 885 Tiffany Road.

The zoning variation was granted subject to agreements between the village and property owners Sandra Baschetti and Susan F. Moore. Village Director of Planning, Zoning, and Building Robert Silhan had recommended approval of the variation request subject to seven conditions. Additional agreements summarized in a memorandum by Village Attorney Kenneth Clark were also accepted by petitioners prior to the vote.

In response to concerns expressed by project area neighbors, the Zoning Board requested special consideration be given to improved berms and night lighting on the site in order to ameliorate off-site impacts. Petitioners further agreed to build sidewalks on Tiffany Road from their site to Lake Street if feasible.

The Jan. 22 hearing had been continued from Dec. 11 and focused on information requested of the petitioner. The primary focus of ques-

ACHS modernization project begins in May

Two high schools will serve Dist. 117 in early 21st century

By KENNETH PATCHEN
Staff Reporter

Construction begins in May to create a modern Antioch Community High School facility for up to 2,000 students. It is the first part of changes that will result in two high schools serving District 117 students within a decade.

"This must be a first rate facility in all ways," said Superintendent Dr. Dennis Hockney to Antioch Rotary Club members at their Jan. 22 luncheon. His presentation included the first showing of artist renderings of the $8 million school modernization project.

Hockney and Business Manager W.C. (Bill) Ahlers described new areas to be constructed, financing strategies for the building, and future school facility plans.

"We're going to construct an addition to the north end of the building," Hockney said. There also will be an addition to the west side of the building. However, west side changes will move the face of the building toward Main Street only about 12 inches. Modernization will affect 60,000 square feet. Hockney said that modernization is not as much about new space as it is about better space. "Every space we have we use," he said. "We do not have the luxury of space now."

The north addition will have an applied technology laboratory, family and consumer science classrooms, early childhood education classrooms, and chemistry and physics classrooms. The west addition will have administrative offices, the library and a new entrance area. Hockney said the library will be open to the public after school hours.

"The good news is that we are going to be able to do this without a referendum," Hockney said. Financing will be through certificates of participation which are "very much like a bond." Ahlers and Hockney expect that financial assistance may be available through the Illinois Education Reform Act.

"The decision of the (school) board is that we should have two campuses," Hockney said. The modernization project is a step towards that goal. "Ultimately, in about five to eight years, we have to talk about another high school." Modernization provides space for about 200 more students at a facility that now has 1,800 students.

In response to questions at the end of his presentation, Hockney said the new school will be built east of Antioch. "We do not have the property," he said.

HISTORY: Antioch rescue personnel have long history of service the bond issue is approved by voters.

"It has been many years since the Village of Antioch or the First Fire Protection District of Antioch Township has requested a referendum be put to the voters," Mayor Marilyn Shineflug stated in a written summary. The present fire safety building is the result of a Dec. 10, 1977 voter approval of a $1.3 million bond issue. "The voters easily approved passage of the proposal by a margin of 2.5 to one in both jurisdictions," Shineflug stated. The vote for the bond issue was 430 in favor and 159 opposed.

The Antioch Police Department was originally to be part of the fire station built in 1977. It was dropped from plans because the Fire Protection District is not permitted to spend money on any function other than fire services, according to Shineflug. Instead, the police department took over the building which it currently occupies.

"The current building that houses the Antioch Police department was built over 25 years ago in the early 1970s to accommodate nine employees, five police officers, and four civilian employees," Shineflug has reported. "The Chamber of Commerce, the Rescue Squad, and a portion of the Fire department were housed in the same building."

In the early 1980s, the building was remodeled and the dispatch center was placed in the middle of the building. Administrative offices were moved to the west end of the building. The Chamber of Commerce moved out in the late 1980s.

"A new dispatch center was built in the early 1990s and the police department was again modified to accommodate growing pains," stated Shineflug. The records department moved to the old dispatch area. "In 1995, the Village of Antioch purchased the former Moose building and a portion in the northwest corner of the building was partitioned off and connected to the police department for record storage," Shineflug reported.

The dispatch center is a regional facility used by many police departments in the area. "It is supposed to be separate from the police department," Shineflug stated. Were a new building to be constructed for police services, the regional dispatch center would not be part of the move. "That will stay there," she said.

Historically housed in physical facilities not intended for police work, Antioch police officials nonetheless were able to set a pace for strong innovation in police service. When former Police Chief Chuck Miller was asked about changes he had seen in the Department since he started service in 1967, Miller said, "It's unbelievable how much it changed."

One big advance was "the data terminals in the car. (The police officer) doesn't have to go through dispatch." Plus, officers can receive written copies of information in the squad car and so there are fewer mistakes. Fingerprints are examined much more quickly these days and this means that suspects can be found very quickly Miller also noted.

Police Chief Charles Watkins has also commented about the progressive history of Antioch police of which he was part before he became the current Chief of Police. Antioch was the first community in Lake County to have 911 service. From 1967 to 1997, the department grew from five to 19 professional police officers.

Watkins said that Antioch's police department had helped create the Northwest Quadrant Radio System to improve communications for police officers. A state-of-the-art dispatch system was established for seven emergency departments. The Metropolitan Enforcement Group, the Major Crimes Task Force, and the Northern Illinois Crime Laboratory all received strong support and development assistance from the Antioch police department.

'It has been many years since the Village of Antioch or the First Fire Protection District of Antioch Township has requested a referendum be put to the voters.'

Mayor Marilyn Shineflug

Many of the professional advances in local police service, however, had to be accommodated in a building not intended for police work and modern police technology. Progress to acquire equipment, physical facilities that promote safety service, and personnel training to provide high quality life and property rescue service has always been driven by community financial support. It may be the one constant through the decades.

In December 1943, the fire department received a $5 donation from a grateful J.C. James, of Antioch, for the department's help in saving his property from fire damage that year. The rescue squad too had received a donation earlier in the year.

The Antioch News reported July 1: "This week, through the co-operation of Dr. I.L. Breakstone and George Borovicka of the Reeves Walgreen Drug store, the squad truck was equipped with a doctor's kit, containing all standard emergency drugs used in cases of heart attack, asthma, and drownings. The kit is valued at $100."

At the time, it was a major improvement to the professional service they could provide to keep village residents alive.

February fishing fever hits

Family fun comes to Chain with four derbies

By KENNETH PATCHEN
Staff Reporter

The first two February weekends are filled with fishing derbies on area lakes. They range from one of the oldest in the area to one of the youngest, and they all promise family fun regardless of fishing prowess or success.

Loon Lake Sportsman's Association will sponsor its 13th annual ice fishing derby Feb. 7 and 8 from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. out of the Loon Lake Resort.

The 29th Lake Shangri-La Ice Fishing derby is Feb. 7 and 8 from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. out of the community center at 22112 121st Street.

Lake Villa Township Republican Club's first ice fishing derby is Saturday, Feb. 14 from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Crooked Lake.

Northern Illinois Conservation Club's 38th Annual Chain O' Lakes Fishing Derby and Winter Festival is Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 14 and 15. It is the 38th consecutive derby sponsored by the organization. "Ours is the 'granddaddy' of winter sports and family fun events in the state," said derby chair John Stecher.

Loon Lake derby chair Geoffrey Ziemann stated, "There will be over $10,000 in tagged fish as well as prizes awarded for the largest fish in each of the categories: Northern-Muskie, Walleye, Bass and panfish." There is a $10 entry fee each day, or $15 for two days. Children under sixteen are free with an adult. A donation to "Chef Mickey" between 6 and 11 a.m. yields a Sportsman's Breakfast. During the day, chili and hot-dogs are sold. Information is available from Ziemann at 847-395-8472.

Shangri-La bills itself as the "Biggest Little Fishing Derby in the World." There are refreshments, food, hourly door prizes, and fishing prizes. The first place winner will receive $1,000, second will receive $500, and third place will receive $100. Breakfast is served from 6 to 9:30 a.m. and lunch and dinner are served at 11 a.m. The fishing and cash prizes will be drawn at the community center on Sunday at 5 p.m.

Lake Villa Township Republicans will host their event on the east side of Crooked Lake. It is there that food, door prizes, and children's activities will occur. Also, registration will take place there. The cost is $5. Cash prizes will be awarded.

Headquarters for the NICC Derby is at McDermitt's Resort on Channel Lake, K&S Kempf's on Petite Lake, and Pink Harrison's on Pistakee Lake. Saturday derby times are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday times are 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. There are hourly fishing contests at all locations.

County Board member Judy Martini (Dist. 1-Antioch) described the Northern Illinois Conservation Club event as a major tourist attraction for the entire lakes region. "People come out in large numbers for that event," she said. "They offer some very good prizes." There are events for children, food, raffles, and auctions. "When you go out there, you see a lot of kids, moms, and dads. It's an all-day event," she said. "Northern Illinois Conservation Club is a wonderful organization," said Martini.

Stecher said, "One of our special events again this year, held at all three locations, is our ice shanty contest, on Saturdays only, beginning at noon." Cash prizes are awarded for each category of best original design and most unusual. "All shanties must be homemade and pre-registration is required," Stecher said that the sponsor of this event is Lyons-Ryan Ford.

Coca-Cola and First Chicago Bank of Antioch will sponsor raffles, auctions, coloring contests, and carnival games.

"Raymond Chevy-Olds-Geo has again generously donated a great used car to this event," said Stecher. The auctions for children and adults are held at the headquarters on Sunday starting at 3 p.m.

"The raffle held at the end of the derby has a main prize of a trip to either Puerto Vallarta or Cancun," said Stecher. "The drawing will be held at McDermitt's on Sunday at about 5 p.m.," he said. he said that tickets are available at many bait shops, restaurants, NICC members, at all derby locations. Donations are $2 each or 3 for $5.

There are four major sponsors of the derby with the NICC. They are Antioch Auto Parts, Robinson Wholesale, Inc., Rinella Beverage-Distributors of Budweiser, and First National Bank of Antioch.

This fishing derby is a major fund-raising event for NICC. Funds help to sponsor educational, preservation, and conservation programs. Funds help maintain open space and wetlands on NICC grounds and nature preserves. "This year NICC is offering a $500 scholarship to be awarded to a College of Lake County Student and to a McHenry Community College student," said Stecher.

Privatization of snow plowing works

Village of Antioch officials have privatized some snow-plowing services. Streets of Antioch are now cleared of snow by Thelen Sand & Gravel, Inc. and by Wayne's Service. "I think it's working out great," said Village Manager Tim Wells.

Although there are critical comments and telephone calls every year, so far this year's 30 inches of snow in four storms has yielded barely a handful of calls. "I've heard compliments more than complaints," Wells said.

One factor may be a change in the sequence of how the village does the plowing. "We do not widen-out streets until the end (of the snow storm)." That probably has reduced the number of times people have to send their children out to reshovel the end of the driveway. The village program is working well.

A bank blood drive got bumped from Feb. 21 to 28. First National Bank-Employee Owned will host its blood drive Feb. 28 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The drive will be at 485 Lake Street, Antioch.

"January and February is the period when they would like to have more blood," said Karen P. Kubin for the bank. "We're aiming for thirty donors or more. The bank does another blood drive in the Fall.

County Board Member Judy Martini (Dist. 1-Antioch) spent Wednesday at the Rosemont Convention Center. She was doing an evening shift for the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry at the Chicago Fishing, Hunting, and Travel Outdoor Show. The show is underway now and ends Feb. 1. "Tourism is very big in my district," she said. "We give out a lot of literature about local businesses," she said. "I worked it last year, and I really enjoyed it." She said that there are a lot of people in the Chicago area who want to take mini-vacations to the Chain of Lakes region.

If you have interesting information or anecdotes to submit for "Our Town" call staff reporter Ken Patchen at 223-8161, ext. 131 or e-mail, edit@lnd.com."

Antioch grapplers to challenge Wildcats for wrestling crown

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

Antioch High's wrestling team is waiting for a rematch with Libertyville with much more at stake this time.

The Wildcats are undefeated in dual matches while Antioch's lone loss came to at their hands. The two North Suburban Conference leaders will square off Jan. 31 as LHS hosts the conference meet.

"We were missing a lot of people, who are getting better for the conference meet. We just want to win the conference," said ACHS coach Ted Sieckowski.

ACHS plans to have all its regulars in the lineup that day, which was not the case at its own quad on Saturday as a handful of wrestlers missed the meet due to illness.

ACHS lost to Grayslake 44-18 and Grant 45-16 but beat Round Lake 45-27.

"We got some younger guys to replace them," said Sieckowski of his missing warriors.

One of the featured matches of the day was Antioch senior Jeff Ultes going up against Wes Anderson of Grayslake at 215 pounds. Ultes, normally a 171 pounder who has 16 wins in 17 matches, won 9-8.

"Jeff is right where we want him to be. Jeff and Wes could wrestle for two hours and there would be one point difference. They are both very talented wrestlers - two gladiators," said Sieckowski.

Ultes, at 171, started a two-match win streak which helped Antioch in the upper weights with a fall in 1:24. Smart also won by fall.

Antioch dominated Mundelein 45-24 for an 7-1 mark in league battles. Backe, Grasser, Eric Meyers at 145, Sean Honickel at 152, Ultes, Smart and Nate Carden all won by fall.

tions by Zoning Board members was about financial support for the project and the opportunities for petitioners or future owners to change the function of the building from senior housing to other types of subsidized housing options.

Beth Demes, the financing and program eligibility consultant for the petitioners, discussed State of Illinois financial and program incentives to keep the project as a senior housing facility. "We can guarantee that it will be for seniors," said Demes. "The whole concept is seniors." Zoning board members consistently expressed skepticism that the project would remain available to senior citizens. Later in the meeting, Demes said, "I understand your fears, but I don't think it will come to that." To another question about the same concern, petitioner attorney Andrew C. Lynch said, "The financing is going to prevent that."

County Board Member Judy Martini (Dist. 1-Antioch) expressed support for senior housing in Antioch.

"There is a severe shortage of affordable housing in Lake County," she said from the audience area. "It's a good project and we should look into more senior housing in Antioch." She also said, "I think, personally, it's a good project at its face value."

Tiffany Road Senior Apartments is to be constructed by T&S Builders, founded in 1949. The family-owned business has been in the Antioch area for the past 12 years. "Our experience in construction contracting is extensive," said Rick Baschetti, son of one of the petitioners, in documents submitted to the Zoning Board. "Over the past twelve years, we have developed properties for our own portfolio, including a 20,000 (square foot) commercial building and a four-unit, luxury apartment building."

The meeting was attended by approximately 15 community residents, eight people associated with the development, 11 local government representatives, and one court reporter.

CAN, Chamber show Antioch the money

By KENNETH PATCHEN
Staff Reporter

In 30 seconds, Antioch business owners placed 20 to 28 percent of the cash money on the table that Village officials seek to raise for the William E. Brook Memorial Wetland Sanctuary and Entertainment Center.

Construction of wetland basins in the project area started Jan. 21. That work is itself a donation by Centegra Primary Care Network.

Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry officials made the donation at their Jan. 21 business meeting. They also received an update about downtown redevelopment and improvement plans at their breakfast meeting from Claude LeMere, village community development director. LeMere described village plans for the project located east of the downtown business district along Skidmore Avenue. He discussed Main Street streetscape improvements scheduled to start in March and fund-raising progress on the wetlands restoration and entertainment center project.

At the end of the presentation by LeMere, Chamber President Barbara Porch said, "At this point, CAN would like to contribute $10,000 for the project." She waited five seconds and said, "The Chamber will match that. You now have $20,000."

LeMere accepted the contribution for the community. "This is certainly an example of the way this community functions." He said, "It is a community second to none. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

In response to questions from Chamber members during his presentation, LeMere had said, "The total cost of the project, without the sound system, is approximately $216,700." A sound system for the project will be acquired by Steve Newcomb, Aaron Bernau, and Rich Meltzer of Lakes Area Music Center. The estimated value of a suitable sound system is $50,000. All three will seek donations and equipment for that part of the project.

"Our goal is to raise all the funds for this entire (wetlands restoration and entertainment center) project from grants and donations," LeMere said.

In response to another question, LeMere said that the village hopes to raise between $70,000 and $100,000 of cash money for the project. The money will meet project expenses and serve as in-kind share matches for grants from state and federal sources. "We have had $21,525 donated in the past week," LeMere told Chamber business leaders. A fund-raising committee has been created to accept donations. Members of the committee are Jim Fields, Dan Dugenske, Pres Reckers, Bob Diemer, and Ted Costoff.

Village of Antioch officials also have completed a grant request to submit to the Liberty Foundation for $79,658 for wetlands area work.

Linda Pedersen, president of Antioch Rotary Club, asked if the village intended to create a wish list of project-related needs so that individuals and community organizations could make donations. "Yes," said LeMere.

The decision by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry had been quickly agreed upon during days prior to their regular monthly meeting. "This is the first time we've made such a large donation, to my knowledge," said Porch. "This is a good project for the Chamber to support because it benefits the membership and the community." Porch said that members of the Chamber and CAN, Community Action Now, were both very positive. "It was extremely positive. Nobody gave me a negative answer," she said.

The money from CAN, previously a separate organization that is now a part of the Chamber, had been held by the group for about eighteen months. "That money was designated for a downtown project," Porch said of the $10,000 CAN donation. "We were waiting for a good cause or project to donate it to."

During his presentation to Chamber members about the Brook Memorial Center, LeMere said, "This project is going to have a tremendous economic impact on the community." He said that the project had restoration, education, and entertainment goals for the community. "Bill Brook loved the outdoors; he loved to entertain people."

LeMere was asked by Chamber past-president Ed Cimaglio how long the project would take to complete. "It depends on the dollars," LeMere later said. "Certainly if we get the dollars, this should be done in 24-months."

WHIPLASH!

Whiplash is a term that covers a wide range of neck and back injuries that can result from automobile accidents or almost any activity that involves sudden neck movement. As a frequent cause of personal injury litigation, whiplash is the subject of a lot of jokes, but it is no laughing matter to those who suffer from a whiplash injury. Whiplash injuries can be effectively treated by chiropractic procedures.

You don't have to be involved in a major accident to suffer a whiplash injury. It is prudent to visit your doctor of chiropractic after even a minor automobile accident, since symptoms may not appear right away. Even a relatively slight bump or twist can throw your back or neck out of alignment and result in painful soft tissue or vertebral problems. Cervical neck problems can also be the source of painful disorders in other parts of your body. And remember--to protect yourself from such injuries, always buckle your seat belt!

If maintaining your health and reducing stress is important to you, call Round Lake Beach Chiropractic at 847.740.2800 to make an initial, no obligation consultation with Dr. Scott G. Reiser. Dr. Reiser has served the Lake and McHenry County area for over 10 years. Let his knowledge and experience serve you. Dr. Reiser's clinic is located at 314 Rollins Road, Round Lake Beach (Eagle Creek Plaza - corner of Cedar Lake and Rollins Roads.)

The Causes of Pain

Structural Imbalance is often the cause of back pain which may radiate to other parts of the body. This imbalance is usually caused by poor posture, stress, accidents, trauma, aging or simple daily wear and tear on the ligaments, tendons and muscles which connect the skeletal frame together. When injuries to these connective tissues heal, scar tissues form which lack the elasticity and suppleness of healthy tissues. An escalating cycle of stiffness and tension ensues until pinched nerves send the back into spasms of acute pain. Sometimes the symptoms are less dramatic, robbing the body of vigor over a long period of time. The following symptoms may manifest:

- LOW BACK PAIN AND SCIATICA
- NECK PAIN AND HEADACHES
- SHOULDER AND ARM PAIN
- LEG, KNEE OR ANKLE PAIN

Awards announced by True Value

Antioch True Value hardware store has both given and received awards as a result of Christmas promotions during December.

The winner of the store's "Eight Foot of Toys Christmas Stocking" was Tifani Warden.

Antioch True Value itself was given the Commander's Award by the United States Marine Corps Reserve for collecting toys for children. The award recognizes the store's "generous, outstanding achievement in support of the 1997 Toys for Tots Program."

"The number of items brought in by our community was the highest ever this year," said Stan Livermore, owner of the True Value store.

Livermore said, "The generosity of our folks is a blessing. Meeting the needs of so many of our area's neediest children with this program is a pleasure."

Do you believe in Santa?

Sitting in front of me are four different sweepstakes offer that I pulled out of the afternoon mail. They all state pretty much the same thing: This is your chance for financial security, your golden opportunity. They all promise that you don't need to buy a thing in order to qualify to win the cabillion dollars they are giving away, but still won't you take a minute and look through their "never to be beaten" offer. And, of course, the packet always contain that little yellow piece of paper stating that if you don't respond to this sweepstakes offer, they will be forced to remove your name from their mailing list.

Of course, the instructions needed to properly fill out your entry form is contained in a three-page letter that must be read in its entirety and is as repetitious as most first grade reading books. And always, there is the added incentive for those wishing to be awarded "bonus" prizes if they return their entry before a specific date.

Publishers Clearing house even placed ads on TV promoting their sweepstakes which will be awarded Super Bowl Sunday. They promised to bring their Prize Patrol right to your door with balloons, flowers and a camera crew. And, in the event that you would not be home on that particular Sunday, they even had an "800" number you could call to tell them what address you would be at in case you actually won the big bonanza.

Reader's Digest subscribers get the added benefit of receiving a new sweepstakes with every monthly magazine they receive—because you are a valued subscriber. Reader's Digest could have a passel of money by cutting out all the sweepstakes literature and extra postage it costs to mail it and pass that savings on to the consumer by cutting their subscription rates—yea right.

One does wonder if they ever really award any of those prizes, but the people who make a living writing these pushy letters sure do know how to get your adrenaline pumping—they are all probably former used car salesmen. They choose all the right words and make you feel like you really are only one out of every 100 residents in Illinois chosen for this sweepstakes, along with everyone else on your block. And, even though they tell you, you don't have to buy anything, in the back of your mind, you can't help but think "oh, it might increase my chances of winning though if I buy $900 worth of merchandise."

JINGLE FROM PRINGLE

Lynn Pringle

So, what does one do when one of these little packets arrive with the afternoon mail? Do we throw caution to the wind and pitch the envelope out with the lunch time leftovers, or do we actually take time out of our already jammed filled schedule to place all the stickers in their proper places? Somebody has to win these things, right? So, do you open up the trash can, thereby throwing away perhaps the winning numbers, or do you throw away the cost of a 32 cent stamp and a few minutes of your precious time if it could mean a secure financial future?

They have us don't they? They know what buttons to push, what chains to jerk, and the right words to use to snag us with their fairy tale stories. So, we swallow it hook, line and sinker and fill out their silly forms, choosing the color car we want to win and the form in which our monthly winnings will be disbursed. Always reaching for that golden ring, that silver spoon, that "get rich quick" scheme, always thinking the way to true happiness is a fat bank account. Well, maybe it's not, but if kids can believe in Santa and the Tooth Fairy, why can't moms and dads believe in a fairy tale of their own. Besides, in the event that we do ever win, you can be sure that good old Uncle Sam will snap us back to reality real quick.

And so goes another, "Jingle from Pringle."

Readers with information for "Jingle from Pringle" should call Lynn Pringle at 395-6364.

NEIGHBORS

Name: Mike Ehlers

Home: Antioch

Occupation: Owner of The Village Pub, 899 Main Street.

I'm originally from: Morton Grove, Ill.

I graduated from: Niles West High School

My family consists of: Mom and Dad, older sister Mary, and older brother and partner Bill.

What I like best about Antioch: The small town feel, the closeness.

What I like best about my job: Meeting different people. This is something I've wanted to do all my life.

The secret to my success is: Great food, half-pound burgers, great barbecue ribs. We have a nice Friday fish fry. This is probably the best hamburger I've ever had. I kept the same cook.

I relax by: Ha. When? I'm here 110 hours a week. I do golf, but I've not had much chance for that.

Favorite restaurant: The Village Pub. We just expanded the menu. We have an excellent chef. It's relaxed here. It's cozy. It's not ear-bleeding loud.

Favorite music: Classic Rock. Country.

Favorite band or musician: I like them all. I'm not partial to anybody. There are so many good bands out there.

My life's motto is: I basically get through life without a motto.

If I won the lottery, I would: I would probably put some of the money into this Pub and maybe enjoy life a little more.

I want to be remembered as: Somebody that wasn't disliked

People who knew me in high school would say: Well, some would say it doesn't surprise them that I own a pub.

My pet peeve is: Overbearing people.

Most interesting person I ever met was: My dad. He's very knowledgeable and was kind enough to bring me into this world and raise me.

My dream job would be: I'm doing it.

If I had a plane ticket to anywhere, I would go to: I'm not that fond of flying. Australia. I'd check out the surf, beach. I hear it's nice.

Packers fall; events and fund-raisers abound

Yes, we all saw the Green Bay Packers lose to the Denver Broncos last weekend. And all I can say is...Yea! I'm so glad that the evil empire known as the Packers were beaten in the Super Bowl. No more cheeseheads gloating about Brett Favre this and Reggie White that, and how many cheeseburgers did Gilbert Brown eat? Now, don't get me wrong, I'm not necessarily a Bronco fan, but I just despise the Packers. And it's great to see the AFC beat the NFC and knock that chip off their collective shoulder.

The Chicago Bulls' first coach and now color announcer on FOX Sports Chicago and WGN Television for the Bulls, Johnny "Red" Kerr, will be honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award at the 11th Annual FOX Sports Chicago Sports Awards benefiting the March of Dimes.

Groth, Sequoits defensive vs. Z-B

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

From Zion-Benton to Lincolnshire, foes of Antioch High know of Chris Groth's shooting abilities.

Leave him open and the senior will make you pay, whether it be a shot from the wing, a three-pointer, or buzzer beater.

In a key Antioch win, Groth showed other talents in a 71-65 win over Mundelein.

"He had his best defensive game of the year. He shut down Doug Rippberger," said ACHS coach Jeff Dresser.

Groth also did the job at the offensive end with five three-pointers in a 25-point outing. He received help from Mike Nielsen with 16 points and Brian Soldano with six early points.

The win gave the Sequoits hope on Saturday. The Sequoits entered a home North Suburban clash with Zion-Benton just two games behind. The Sequoits (4-4 NSC) all but fell out of the race as they could not keep up a torrid shooting pace to start the game in a 54-41 loss to the Zee-Bees.

Zion-Benton (18-1, 7-1 NSC) used the one-two punch of Al Lainio (21 points) and Quainde Moore (16 points) in the win.

"Their zone defense changed the nature of the game, but we missed a lot of shots. Our freshman, Eric White, showed guts going in there against their 6-7 and 6-6 kids. The first half we did a nice job. We controlled the tempo except for at the end of the first half," said Dresser.

Groth had to shoulder most of the scoring burden. He finished with 13 points. Soldano added 10.

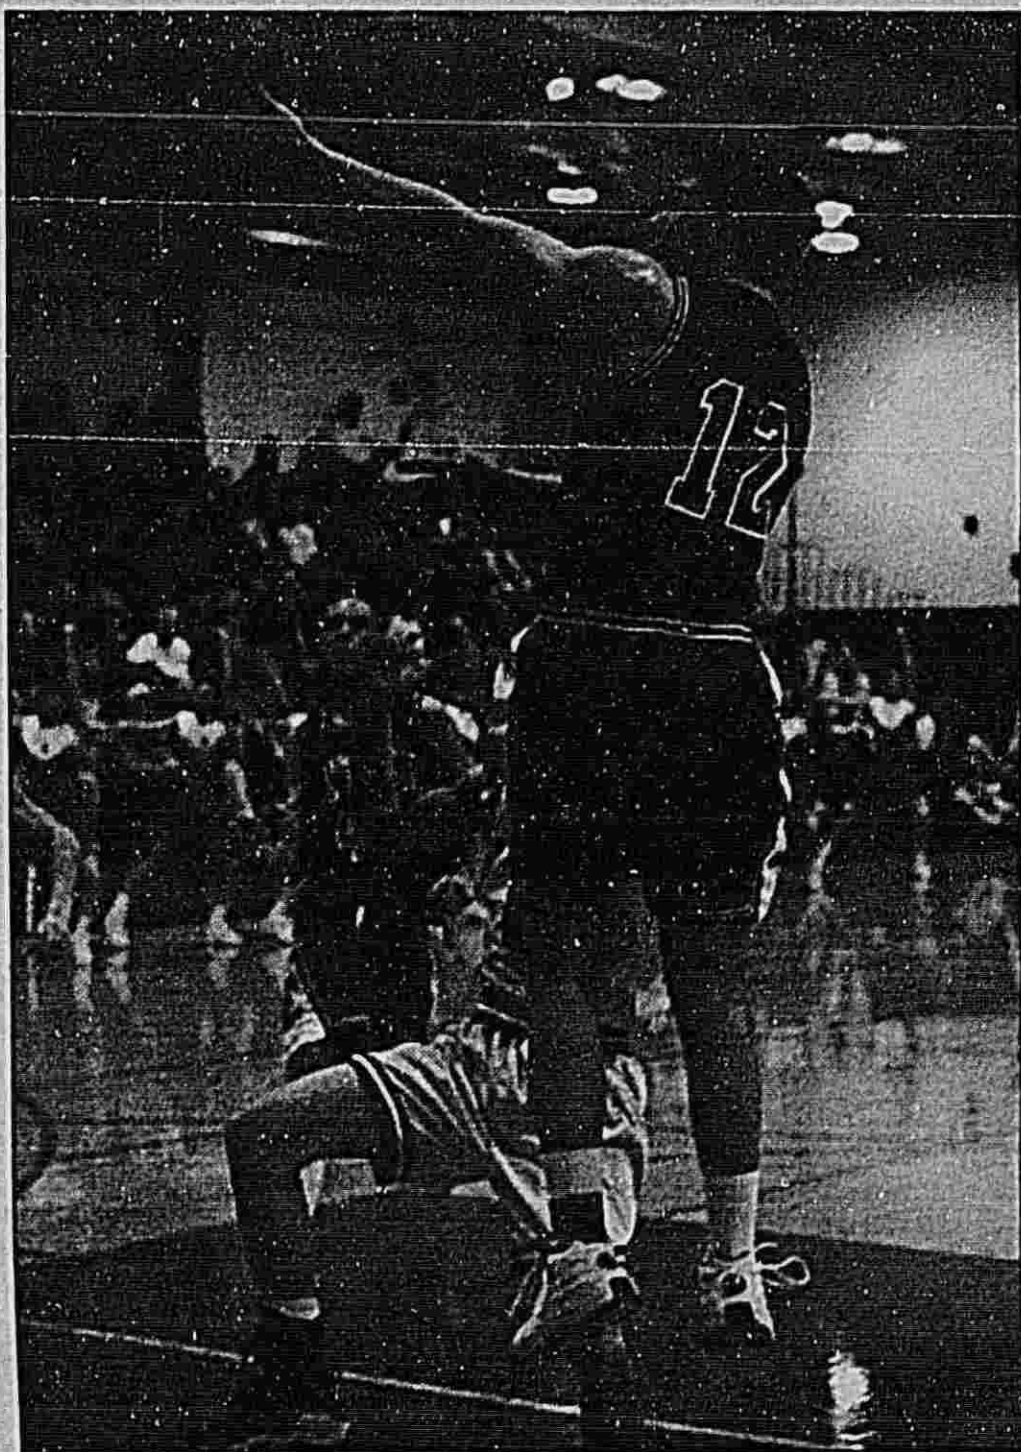

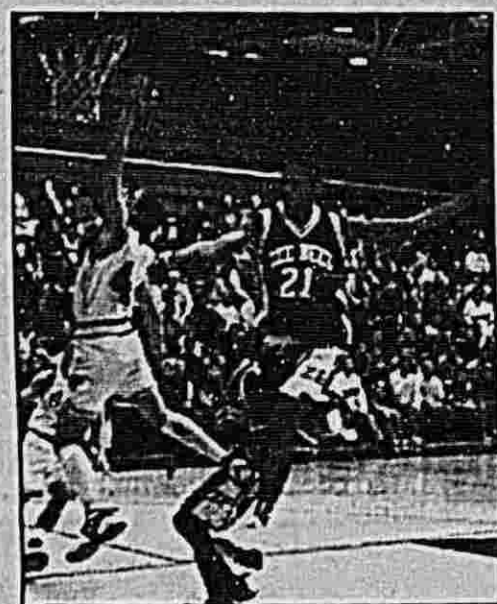

ACHS made 8-of-12 field goal shots in the first quarter and had a 16-12 lead.

The two teams were tied at 22-22 at halftime and Zion led by four after three. The lead quickly extended to nine points off Moore's second dunk, on a three-point play.

ACHS did receive some good news from the injury front. Dave Gooch, a senior quarterback, injured his knee in the first game of football season. Rehab is going well on reconstructive surgery and he could be back in three weeks.

In another clash last week, Antioch (11-7 overall) held back Grant 41-40 on the road. Sophomore Quinn Gooch and Groth accounted for the final five points. Grant's last second shot was short.

ACHS hosts Stevenson Jan. 30 and is at Warren Feb. 3.

ACHS bowlers take aim at LHS

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

Libertyville will be the team all other North Suburban Conference squads will be aiming for when Antioch Lanes hosts the league meet.

The Jan. 30 meet could feature Warren and the host Sequoits giving the Wildcats a run for their money. Warren comes into the meet with a 4-2 mark in the loop.

Antioch (5-6 overall, 2-4 NSC) also has confidence of a 100 pin loss to Warren and trailing by just two pins into the third game of a Monday loss to Libertyville.

"We are hoping to beat Libertyville and win the conference title. We have to beat Libertyville twice and we have not accomplished that goal. We have the ability to pick each other up," said Carrie Streicher of Warren.

This year's team, with new coach Jim Voutiritsas at the helm, has progressed steadily, said Radman.

"We have been coming together and becoming more consistent. We have got some great balance. Anyone can shoot 200 and any kid in the lineup can have a 550 series," said Voutiritsas.

"We faced some adversity in the past week and it can either make you come together or destroy you. We are coming closer together. We would like to beat Libertyville - they are the best," said Voutiritsas.

Radman led Warren against the Patriots with a 552 series, 199 high game. Consistency was on her side as she had a 174 and 179 game.

Krissy Echtenacher, a sophomore, had a 480 series with a high game of 188. Streicher contributed a 467, Arin Leach a 464 and Andrea Nowak a 463.

Antioch lost to both Warren and Libertyville last week. The Wildcats won 2,635 to Antioch's 2,578.

Stephanie Martz led Antioch with a 558 series, with two games over 200.

"She has been working hard on perfecting her release. She had a tendency to squeeze it," said Haenchen.

Amber Swiderek had a 548 series, Amanda Phelps a 492.

WTHS turned back Antioch 2,443 to 2,343.

Swiderek had a 560 series and Stefanie Foresta a 498.

Carlberg, ACHS girls beat Zion

Amie Carlberg is a name opponents of Antioch High's girls basketball team (11-9) should remember for the future.

"Amie is our best defensive player. We look for her to match up with the opponent's best player. She has good defensive skills," said ACHS coach Dave Woods.

Carlberg scored 12 points in a 55-35 win over Zion-Benton. She had seven in a controversial 33-32 loss to Wauconda which broke an Antioch winning streak.

"She is a pleasant surprise. She is going to be our go-to player next year," said Woods.

Aja Brown had 17 points and Nicole Langley 16 as the Sequoits improved to 3-5 in league play. ACHS shot 65 percent from the field.

"It was very discouraging to see Wauconda foul us and no calls were made many times. We should not have been in that position - that was an unfortunate situation," said Woods.

Antioch hosts North Chicago Jan. 31. The clash will be a preview of the Feb. 17 first round Warren sectional clash when ACHS hosts the Warhawks. Antioch is the seventh seed. North Chicago won by 14 points the first round.

'We want to help people understand the personal stories of the people who have lived here'

Archiving the 20th Century

Renovated Lake County Museum will feature a mall exploring the 20th Century and a showcase for the nation's largest postcard collection

Top of the page, Lake County Museum Director Janet Gallimore displays drawings of an exhibit currently under construction which will bring the 20th century to life in the museum for a 10-year exhibit. The exhibit is designed to expand education in American museums. Above, models for the exhibit which are being constructed at EDE Corporation in Chicago.—Photos by Sandy Bressner

The idea of a museum as a boring dust-filled environs is ready to be dispelled in Lake County.

Within the year a new permanent exhibit will be installed at the Lake County Museum. It will attempt to reach out to people who have never been museum aficionados by providing them with a comfortable, familiar environment that will pique their curiosity and enrich their minds.

"A lot of people love history, but a lot of people think it's boring and not pertinent to them. It's sort of a school subject but not something they want to hear about," said Katherine Hamilton-Smith, Lake County Museum Curator of Historical Resources.

"We want to help people understand the 'real' personal stories of the people who have lived here, beginning with the native Americans who lived here for thousands of years right up to the present and the people who live here today," said Hamilton-Smith.

This exhibit has been on the drawing board for two years. The plans are almost finished and the designs will then be constructed off-site. Once the fabricators are finished the sets will be moved into the museum and be finished on site. The exhibit will open in the summer of 1999.

It all began with the museum's selection as one of 11 museums in the nation to participate in the American Association of Museums National Research Demonstration Project to Expand Education in American Museums. This was in 1993. Since then, the museum has focused on the goals of making the museum more approachable, increasing community involvement and expanding ethnic diversities.

This renovation is an outgrowth of the project. Janet Gallimore, museum director said the museum is changing to meet the needs of a diverse audience and hopes to become a regional tourism attraction.

This is a nationwide trend, she said. Museums are trying to expand their audiences by creating popular attractions.

In preparing for their new permanent exhibit, likely to be around for 10 years or more, they held a quorum with historic scholars from many leading academic institutions to determine what people want to see in a museum about the 20th century.

The new exhibit was designed by Abrams, Teller, Madsen (ATM) of Chicago and is being constructed by EDE Corporation.

The project will feature two components. The first revolves around the theme of a mall with stores featuring different exhibits. The second will focus on the museum's renowned postcard collection, the largest in the country.

ATM's partners, all former employees of the Field Museum, are now nationally recognized design experts of museum exhibits.

Hamilton-Smith said the idea of the mall concept came from Alan Teller of ATM. It is a way to blend something people are comfortable with, a mall, with something their not comfortable with, history.

Frank Madsen, of ATM said the mall idea came through brainstorming with his two colleagues.

"Making museums available to a wide spectrum of society is where the roller coaster and mall ideas came from. This wasn't for someone who has been visiting the museum every three months for years," he said.

Madsen said the biggest differences in the new exhibit will be more interpretive information, things to interact with and things to be involved with.

The mall features will tie it together but the stores will look different, he explained. The stores will cover the entire duration of history for that subject.

"None of these sections will be frozen in time," he said.

The new exhibit is going to be located in the Lake County History wing. The north wing, which just underwent a renovation, will continue to feature temporary exhibits. There won't be any changes to the museum structure with the exception

KID'S FARE

'Kids Day Out' program offers activities for school holidays

Make plans now for the upcoming school holidays. Registration is open for Camp Duncan's "Kids Day Out" program, one of the new and innovative programs developed for the '97-'98 school year.

"Kids Day Out" program dates for this school year are: Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12; Casimir Pulaski Day, March 2; and Spring Break, March 30, 31, April 1, 2 & 3.

Each day of the program will take place from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Activities will include archery, hiking, teams course, outdoor education, sports, foomall, crafts, and boating. Winter weather will provide opportunities for ice skating, sledding, ice hockey, and winter sports.

"The program has been developed as a response to our customers and the surrounding communities need for safe and fun activities for children on school holidays," announced Craig White, child care director at YMCA Camp Duncan. Camp Duncan offers opportunity to learn new skills, develop new friendships, renew old friendships, and just have fun.

For more information, call Camp Duncan, 32405 N. Hwy. 12, Ingleside, at 546-8086.

Kids and parents have fun using their brains

Outdo yourself, set your own record, and/or just play to solve some of the most interesting logic and brain puzzles from a span of 100 years, plus make a logic puzzle to take home.

Families are invited to the Hall of Puzzles Challenge Day on Sunday, Feb. 1 anytime between 1 and 5 p.m. Styles to puzzle through are magic squares, packing puzzles, wire parlor puzzles, heads & tail, geometric puzzles, dexterity puzzles, put-togethers and sliding block. There will be no jig saw puzzles.

When a puzzle is solved, participants ring bells to announce the moment of achievement. Puzzle masters will record names for posterity and award "Outstanding Thinker" certificates. Special puzzle prizes and viewing of an exhibit are also part of the unique event.

Admission is $3.50 per person.

Suggested ages are 5 to adult, with all children accompanied by an adult. Younger people may attend for the same admission charge. A one-and-a-half hour visit minimum is recommended. Anyone paying in advance receives an automatic prize upon arrival that day.

The event is held at the Hall of Puzzles, a program of the non-profit educational center: Teaching Place & Parent Resources, 53 Milwaukee Ave., Burlington, Wis.

A version of the program can also be offered at schools and events to enrich thinking experiences and problem solving skills, and naturally have a great time. Fifty different types of puzzles are for sale at the center's gift shop, which acts as a fundraiser for the educational center.

For more information, call (414) 763-3946.

HOROSCOPE

Aries - March 21/April 20

You get the cold shoulder from business associates early in the week, Aries. It will be frustrating, but you have to get to the root of the problem. A loved one needs your help later in the week. Do all that you can for him or her — even though it will take up a lot of your time. Leo plays a key role.

Taurus - April 21/May 21

Get ready, Taurus, because it's going to be a long week. You have a lot of things to do in both your professional life and your personal life. Don't let others distract you. You meet an old friend at the end of the week. Catch up with him or her; you'll be surprised to learn how much you two have in common.

Gemini - May 22/June 21

A disagreement between loved ones turns into a family feud. Even though it's going to be difficult, don't choose sides. Try to help everyone else come to an understanding. That special someone finally asks you out. However, don't say yes immediately. Playing "hard to get" is sure to keep him or her interested.

Cancer - June 22/July 22

You do very well when it comes to business this week, Cancer. You make wise decisions that get you noticed by the higher-ups. A bonus is on the way. A friend turns to you for advice. Give your honest opinion — that's what he or she needs to hear. Sagittarius and Libra play key roles later in the week.

Leo - July 23/August 23

This is not the week for you to be headstrong. Keep your cool, or you are going to get into trouble with business associates, loved ones and friends. If you get frustrated, spend some time alone to clear your thoughts. A close friend admits how he or she truly feels about you. Don't give a hasty response. Think about how you feel.

Virgo - Aug 24/Sept 22

You have good fortune this week, Virgo. You complete everything that you set out to do, and you feel great. Don't let a minor argument with a friend ruin your attitude. The two of you will work it out very soon. A loved one needs your help with a personal problem. Be supportive.

Libra - Sept 23/Oct 23

Everything seems to upset you early in the week. However, don't take your frustration out on those around you. Try to calm down before you say something that you'll regret. That special someone whom you've been seeing wants to intensify the relationship. Say yes! This is the person for you. Leo plays a key role.

Scorpio - Oct 24/Nov 22

Keep your shoulder to the wheel early in the week, Scorpio. You have a long to-do list that needs to be completed before Friday. A lot of people are depending on you. Don't let them down. A friend gets into a lot of trouble and turns to you for help. Do what you can, because he or she doesn't know where else to go.

Sagittarius - Nov 23/Dec 21

Even though you don't have a lot of work to do, it's a busy week for you. Everyone seems to need your help in one way or another. Do what you can, but don't wear yourself thin. You need to look out for No. 1. A friend of a friend wants to meet with you. Don't get nervous; this could be the beginning of a fulfilling relationship.

Capricorn - Dec 22/Jan 20

A business associate needs help with an important project. Even though you have your own work to do, you realize how crucial this assignment is. Do all that you can to help. Your efforts will be noticed. A close friend takes you out late in the week. Enjoy yourself.

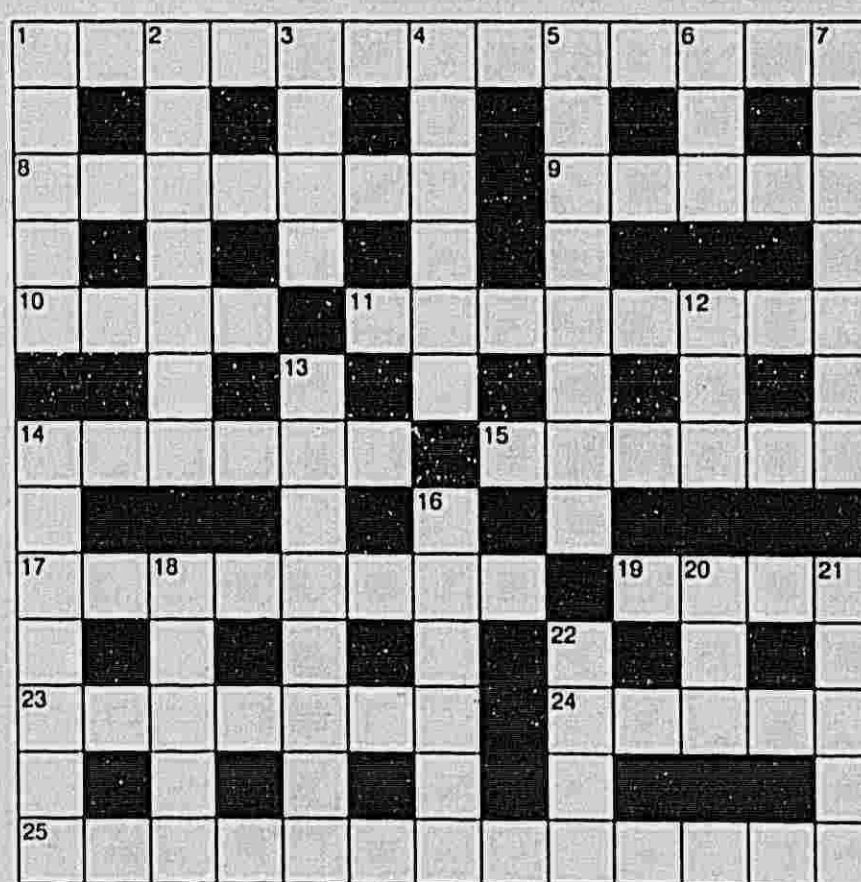

Aquarius - Jan 21/Feb 18

You can't be in two places at once, Aquarius. So, organize your time efficiently. Prioritize your schedule, and do what you have to do. A loved one understands when you cancel plans with him or her. You meet an interesting person during the middle of the week. Find a way to see him or her again.

Pisces - Feb 19/March 20

Your week gets a rough start. A problem at work has you fixing a lot of other people's mistakes. Don't get frustrated; just correct the problems. Your superiors have their eyes on you. An old flame contacts you out of the blue. Don't rekindle the fire!

THEATRE

'Elmer Gantry'

Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre presents the Chicago premiere of a major new musical, Elmer Gantry. Press Night is Feb. 4 and the show runs through March 22. The show stars Broadway's Tom Zemon (Les Miserables) and Kerry O'Malley (Cyrano the Musical).

Elmer Gantry is based on Sinclair Lewis' Pulitzer Prize-winning novel and Academy Award-winning film. In the dusty back water towns of the Midwest in the 1930s, Sister Sharon Falconer's two-bit traveling salvation show struggles to save souls and meet expenses. Enter the fast talking, good looking Elmer Gantry, salesman and con man. He turns Sister Sharon's world upside down and starts saving souls with showbiz savvy and greedy know-how. But what he really wants, money can't buy. His smoldering desire for the beautiful Sister Sharon ignites into a blazing inferno threatening to consume them both. The only thing left to save is his own soul.

Performances are Wednesdays at 2 and 8 p.m.; Thursdays at 8 p.m.; Saturdays at 5 and 8:30 p.m.; and Sundays at 2:30 and 7 p.m. Tickets are $33, with $5 off to senior citizens and students for certain performances. Reservations can be made by calling the box office at 634-0200.

'Streetcar'

PM&L Theatre presents "A Streetcar Named Desire" by Tennessee Williams as the third show in Season 37 at the theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch. Directed by Deane Jones from Round Lake, this drama ranks as one of the greatest in American theater. Production dates are Jan. 30, 31, Feb. 6, 7, 13 and 14 at 8 p.m. and Feb. 1, 8 and 15 at 2:30 p.m.

The talented cast has a great deal of theatrical experience. Colleen Jordan from McHenry stars as Blanche du Bois, and Peter Pintozzi from Island Lake plays Stanley (the role that Marlon Brando made famous in the movie). Leslie Meyer from Trevor is Stella, and Phil Jaeger

Hot rods roll in for CarQuest World of Wheels

The 36th Annual CarQuest World of Wheels peels into McCormick Place next week, Jan. 30-Feb. 1, complete with the largest collection of custom classics, souped-up street machines and new-age lowriders east or west of the Motor City. In addition to more than 500 of the hottest of the hot rods, trucks, vans and motorcycles, this year's World of Wheels will feature celebrity appearances by Nascar driver Kyle Petty, former Chicago Bear and World Championship Wrestling star Steve McMichael, and "Baywatch" beauty Donna D'Errico.

The wheels of action will roll on with an air-to-ground BMX bikers' extreme stunt show, hydrolics-hyped lowrider showdown, and the national championships of Street Rodder Magazine's Model Car Competition.

Wally Larson's LE1 Ground Fighter, a bright red rocketship of a car with two-and-a-half-foot tailfins and a Nitro-Methanol burning, 32-valve V-8 engine that reaches speeds beyond 400 m.p.h., will be among this year's featured vehicles. A flock of fan favorites will cruise into the Cavalcade of Customs, including Eagle One's Eclipse, a '32 Ford pick-up that's been traveling the show circuit for the last 30 years, and Jack Walker's Blue Danube, a chopped from Zion plays Mitch.

Other cast members are: Chris Jones from Lindenhurst, Eunice; Bruce Weise from Antioch, Steve; Janice Ferri from Lindenhurst, the nurse; and Scott Badtke from Genoa City, Wis., the young collector.

Reservations can be made by calling 395-3055 or by coming to the box

CHECK IT OUT!

Northwest Indiana CarQuest locations. For more information, call (708) 354-4014.

'52 Buick Riviera recognized by its two-tone blue pearl and silver blue paint job. Car customizer extraordinaire Boyd Coddington will bring his Boydair, a slick, red '60 Impala dubbed "the wildest '57 Chevy phantom the world has ever seen," to this year's show, along with the Ragen

'40, a 1940 Ford convertible owned by rocker Michael Anthony, bass player and vocalist for Van Halen. The Truckin' Magazine Corral will spotlight customized trucks from the '50s through today, and the popular Lowrider Magazine Showcase will feature the Lowrider car and truck of the year.

Event hours for the CarQuest World of Wheels are 5 to 10:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 30; 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 31; and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 1. Donna D'Errico will appear Saturday only, from 1 to 4 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m. Kyle Petty will appear on Sunday, 12 to 2 p.m., and Steve McMichael on Sunday, 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Tickets are $11 for adults and $4 for children younger than 12 years at the door. Discounted tickets can be purchased at all Chicago-area and CarQuest locations.

"The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940" through Feb. 7 on Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and 3 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 1 at the Leisure Center Theatre, located at 3323 Waters Ave. in Northbrook.

"The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940" is about the creative team responsible for a recent Broadway flop that has assembled in an old mansion (what else) for a backer's audition. Suddenly, the infamous "Stage Door Slasher" makes an appearance and the bodies begin to drop and drop and drop. This show, a wildly comic romp, enjoyed a long and critically hailed run both on and off-broadway.

Performance dates are Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 1 at 3 p.m. For tickets, call the box office at 291-2367. All sets are reserved with a price range of $9 to $16. Discounts available to groups, seniors and tickets purchased in advance.

Legends in concert

The Fireside Restaurant and Playhouse in Fort Atkinson, Wis., is proud to present an exclusive Midwest engagement, direct from Las Vegas, of John Stuart's Award Winning "Legends in Concert." The Fireside's production features live re-creations of Liberace, Dolly Parton, Kenny Rogers, The Andrews Sisters, Diana Ross, and the King himself, Elvis!

The show is directed by Legends creator John W. Stuart with choreography by Bobby Boling. In addition to the Legends stars, there is a supporting cast of eight singers and dancers that were selected from The Fireside's New York auditions.

Legends in Concert runs until March 1, with 10 performances weekly Wednesday through Sunday. A Las Vegas style Casino Buffet is served prior to each performance. The Fireside complex includes several gift shops with an extensive selection of unique merchandise including many popular collectible lines. It is located on Business Hwy. 26 on the south side of Fort Atkinson.

For tickets or more information, call 1-800-477-9505.

Sister act performs

The Chenille Sisters, the modern-day Andrews Sisters, who explode with pure harmonies, eclectic wit and good old-fashioned showwomanism, will appear at the Pabst Theater, 144 E. Wells St., Milwaukee, Wis. on Jan. 31, at 8 p.m.

Visit Europe While Enjoying The Sunny Caribbean

by JIM WARNKEN

President, North Star Travel

Airfare to much of Europe is usually a bargain this time of year.

There's a reason for that. Winter in most of Europe is not much better than here in the midwest. Cold, gray and windy is the forecast for many of Europe's most popular cities.

So why not try the European flavor of the Caribbean?

Instead of Holland, try Curacao.

After the Dutch kicked the Spaniards off the island of Curacao in 1634, they turned it into a tropical Holland in miniature. The spectacular house fronting the Grand Harbor remind me of the narrow mansions lining the canals of Amsterdam.

With 81 degree winter temperatures and the hot action at Cauracao's casinos, it's my choice for Holland in the winter.

As substitute for Paris, you may want to visit Martinique in the French West Indies.

Empress Josephine called this island home as did Madame de Maintenon, mistress of Louis XIV. (Some claim even today Martinique is home to the most beautiful women in the West Indies). If you can tear yourself away from Martinique's miles of sandy beaches, a tour of the interior of this lush island will leave little doubt as to why the Carib Indians called it the "Island of Flowers".

Puerto Rico is the Spain of the Caribbean.

Under Spanish rule for almost four centuries, Puerto Rico retains the flavor of Old Spain. A walking tour of the walled city of "Old San Juan" is a five hundred year step back in history.

The positive effect is English is spoken (though you might not recognize it) in places like Jamaica and the Bahamas. A negative is you have to get used to looking to your right first when crossing the street. If you're really adventurous and want to rent a car, you'll not only have to get used to driving on the left, but also shifting with your left hand as well!

SPECIAL EVENTS

Groundhog to emerge

Even as winter freezes the Chicago area, the groundhog is getting ready for its annual emergence during the Lake County Forest Preserve's annual "Groundhog Day" program on Sunday, Feb. 1, from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., at the Ryerson Conservation Area near Deerfield.

The hour-long program, for families with children 8 years and younger, begins when the groundhog comes up from its hole in the Forest Preserve. The groundhog then leads everyone indoors to learn more about groundhogs, hibernation, and weather forecasting.

The fee is $2 per person ($3 for non-Lake County residents). Reservations and pre-payment are required. Ryerson Woods is located on Riverwoods Road just south of Route 22 and west of the I-94 Tollway near Deerfield.

For more information, or to make a reservation, call 948-7750.

Winter Fest '98 is Feb. 7

Are you coming down with cabin fever? Break out of the winter doldrums and come to Waukegan Park District's Winter Fest 1998.

Winter Fest 1998 is scheduled for Feb. 7, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Bevier Park (at the southeast corner of Yorkhouse and McAree Rds.). Admission is free.

Enjoy traditional winter activities like ice skating, snowball throwing, a hockey puck shootout and snow painting. There will also be cross-country skiing equipment available.

Participants can try their hands at a lesser known sport of broomball. Broomball is a unique hybrid of soccer, basketball and hockey. Brooms, serving as sticks, will be provided by the park district.

Hot chocolate and winter snacks are available to keep participants warm. For more information, call 360-4700.

Take a carriage ride in Long Grove

In celebration of Lincoln's birthday, the Long Grove Carriage Co. will be offering tours of the historic village of Long Grove in the carriage used by Abraham Lincoln as he traveled the Illinois lawyer circuit from Springfield to Chicago.

The restored 1840s two-seater Rockaway Carriage will be in the village Saturday, Feb. 14 and Sunday, Feb. 15 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Monday, Feb. 16 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Cost is $20 for 20 minutes, leaving from the village crossroads.

Lee Brockway, owner of the Long Grove Carriage Co. has had the brougham reupholstered and repainted, and has replicated the side lanterns as close to the originals as possible. The carriage is available for weddings and other special occasions, and according to Brockway, can be hired for a romantic Valentine evening.

For more information, or to make a reservation, call 634-3368.

Free sign language seminar planned

A free seminar, "Sign Language/Deaf Awareness Class" for the hearing and Spanish parents/siblings of deaf children, is offered from Feb. 2 to March 23, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in Waukegan (specific location to be announced). Delynn Miller, Deaf Services coordinator of Lake County Center for Independent Living, will be teaching fingerspelling, basic sign language, deaf culture and resources.

A videotape will be shown about deaf children and Americans with Disabilities Acts (ADA) laws for the deaf community. A few deaf role models will be available to talk about their experiences in school and life. Spanish and sign language interpreters will be on hand. Snacks will be provided. Enrollment is limited to up to 15 people. For a Spanish speaker, call Irma at 949-4440.

For more information, call 949-4440.

Brassissimo Vienna to perform

The Lake County Community Concert Association brings to local audiences a series of music and dance programs emphasizing the arts of several countries. On Saturday, Feb. 7, Brassissimo Vienna, a brass quintet, will perform. Comprised of two trumpets, a French horn, a trombone, and a tuba, Brassissimo Vienna performs an eclectic mix of the majestic and the whimsical. Without being pedantic, they provide excellent commentary on the music they play, making every concert a great learning experience. The program will be held in the Orlin Trapp auditorium in Waukegan High School at Brookside and McAree in Waukegan. For more information on this or any upcoming concert, call Fred Fortney at 244-7465.

Antique Appraisal Days slated

The popular "Antique Appraisal Days" continue at Gorton Community Center, 400 East Illinois Road, Lake Forest. The next seminar will be held on Thursday, Feb. 5 from 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4:30 p.m. for a cost of $20 for three or fewer items. Mary McLeod and James McGonagle of McLeod and McGonagle Antiques will lead the appraisals. Interested participants should register and pay in advance. For more information, or to receive a program brochure, call 234-6060.

For more information, call 543-2405.

Recycle art

Ring in the new year by recycling your unwanted art and art objects. The Suburban Fine Arts Center's annual Recycled Art Sale and Benefit is just around the new year corner and paintings, prints, frames and unwanted art supplies are needed.

In exchange for donations, donors get wall space or closet room and since the Suburban Fine Arts center is a non-profit organization, a charitable deduction as well. The Suburban Fine Arts Center is located at 1913 Sheridan Road in downtown Highland Park. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Dorian Gray

Michael Halberstam, the renowned artistic director of the Writers Theater of Glencoe, will present a reading of Oscar Wilde's "The Picture of Dorian Gray" with actors from the Theater at the Suburban Fine Arts Center on Sunday, Feb. 1 at 2 p.m. The reading will be followed by a discussion with the actors, Halberstam, and Dr. Arnold Tobin of The Institute of Psychoanalysis. Tickets for this event, which will include audience participation, are $20 in advance. For more information, call 432-1888.

MUSIC

Music competition

The North Suburban Symphony of Lake Forest is accepting requests for applicants for the 1998 Young Artists Music Competition. Instrumental, keyboard, and vocal students of high school age may apply. Inquiries should be made to James R. Glacking, at 362-0472.

Finalists will perform in a competition concert May 8, 1998, in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, Maple and Douglas Avenues, in Libertyville.

Ravinia '98 highlights

Ravinia's Executive Director Zarin Mehta and Music Director Christoph Eschenbach have announced upcoming highlights of the 63rd Festival season (June 14-Sept. 7, 1998). The season will encompass world-class performances of symphonic music, jazz, popular events, dance, world music and children's events. The Chicago Symphony Orchestra will be in residence from July 10 through Aug. 27.

"Jazz at Ravinia" will run from June 25-28 and will feature such distinguished artists as Wynton Marsalis with the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, Oscar Peterson, and the Count Basie Orchestra. Visiting dance companies for 1998 include The Joffrey Ballet of Chicago (June 17-20) and Hubbard Street Dance Chicago (Sept. 2-5).

Ravinia will release full details on the 1998 season in late March. To be placed on the mailing list or to receive a 1998 season brochure, call 266-5100.

'All Jazz is Modern'

The acclaimed Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, with Wynton Marsalis, conductor, will bring its "All Jazz is Modern" 1998 World Tour to Orchestra Hall, 220 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, on Sunday, Feb. 8 at 8 p.m., as part of the Symphony Center Presents concert series, presented in association with the Ravinia Festival.

In the words of conductor and trumpeter Marsalis, the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra will "swing as hard as possible at all times." The "All Jazz is Modern" tour will offer the Orchestra performing the joyous music made famous by Count Basie; exploring Duke Ellington's incomparable legacy of works; grooving to Dizzy Gillespie's rarely-heard bebop and Afro-Cuban charts; and showcasing the compositions of Marsalis himself.

Tickets range from $20-$42. Single tickets may be purchased by calling PhoneCharge at (312) 294-3000. For more information, call (312) 294-3093.

Pip Clarke featured

The Elgin Symphony Orchestra's Classic Series continues with "Winter Strings" featuring the Elgin Symphony Orchestra's string section and British violinist Pip Clarke on Saturday, Jan. 31 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 1 at 3:30 p.m. at the Hemmens Theatre in Elgin. The program includes American composer John Corigliano's "Fantasia on an Ostinato," Mendelssohn's Concerto in e minor for Violin and Orchestra and Beethoven's Symphony No. 7.

Violinist Pip Clarke has been called "the most exciting and formidable violinist talent to have emerged from Great Britain in this century," and will be returning to the Chicago area to perform with the Elgin Symphony Orchestra.

Single tickets are available for $5-$30. For tickets, call the Elgin Symphony Orchestra box office at 888-4000 or stop by at 20 DuPage Court in downtown Elgin.

SINGLES

Singles dance

All singles are invited to a Combined Club singles dance at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 31 at the Arlington Park Hilton, 3400 West Euclid, Arlington Heights. DJ music will be provided. Admission is $7. The event is co-sponsored by the non-profit groups Northwest Singles Association, Young Suburban Singles, and Singles & Company. For more information, call (708) 209-2066.

If 'reinventing the presidency' fails, there's always reincarnation

Perhaps President Clinton was someone else in a past life.

Judging by the latest scandals about him, blown up to the size of a gigantic cruise ship by the media (and picking up speed), I would have to wager a guess that in his previous life, he bought a ticket on the Titanic.

Now, since this is just a guess, I can't tell you whether or not he was a survivor. Give me a few more weeks and I'll let you know if I have any new thoughts on that. At the moment, I'm betting on "third-class ticket." But I really hope I'm wrong.

LIFE'S A BEAR

Donna Abear

I'm also thinking that in his next incarnation, if he plans to try politics again, he might like to consider reincarnating himself as a eunuch. In fact, if he had thought of this option before running for President, he might be singing a different tune right now (albeit in a higher pitch). It might even go like this:

IF I WERE A EUNUCH
(sung to the tune of, "If I Had a Hammer")

If I were a eunuch
I'd never look at women

They'd never talk impeachment
All over this land

I'd do my job each morning
I'd do my job each evening
I'd never think of "love" between myself and other women
All ... over this land
If I were a eunuch
I wouldn't need these lawyers
I wouldn't be subpoenaed
All over this land

You wouldn't hear from Paula
No Gennifer would call 'ya,
I guess I should have thought about a little operation
Before things...got out of hand.

If I were a eunuch
Why, everyone would trust me
No one would want to bust me
All over this land

Yeah, maybe I'd be boring
Poor Hillary'd be snoring
But think of all the work I'd do Without my need for "woo"
All...over this land

This is just a suggestion, of course. I doubt that the President would even consider it.

Heck, no - he probably has more than enough "suggestions" of his own. Not only that, he probably has his own song, too. I'm guessing "Blowin' in the Wind".

Questions or comments for humorist Donna Abear can be sent to Lakeland Newspapers, 30 S. Whitney St., Grayslake, IL 60030.

Banana Split Pie brings some summer into winter

Just about this time of year, mass cabin fever starts setting into many households in Lake County. The Banana Split Pie recipe below brings a little bit of summer into our lives in the middle of the winter doldrums, and serves as an excellent treat for the family as a dessert.

Editor's note: Last week's Taco Pizza recipe mentioned Western dressing in the ingredients, but was not mentioned in the directions for assembling the pizza. The Western dressing is an optional condiment to sprinkle on top of individual pizza slices.

Banana Split Pie

Ingredients:

1 ready-made Graham Cracker Pie Crust
1 pkg. instant vanilla pudding & pie filling
2 bananas
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 small jar cherries
Chopped pecans
Caramel topping
1 C semi-sweet chocolate chips
Whipped cream topping
1/4 cup milk

Directions:

Slice bananas and arrange into bottom of pie crust. Follow directions on pudding mix and when done, spread pudding into pie crust and refrigerate until set. When set, slice remaining bananas on top of pudding.

Spread well-drained pineapples over bananas, covering the whole pie. "Frost" pie with whipped cream topping. In small saucepan, combine chips and milk and simmer over low heat until completely melted. Let cool slightly (enough so that it won't instantly melt the whipped cream topping), and with a spoon, drizzle chocolate over pie. Do the same with the caramel topping. Sprinkle nuts over pie, and garnish with cherries. Chill for approximately one hour, then enjoy!

BE THERE

4:30 p.m., weekdays.

Fireside chat with FDR

American history will come to life at a special program on Thursday, Feb. 12 at 7 p.m., at the Civic Center in Libertyville. The Friends of Cook Memorial Library have invited historical dramatist R.J. Lindsey who will do an informal portrayal of Franklin D. Roosevelt, incorporating favorite stories and humorous tales that will touch upon many aspects of the President's life. Registration is required by calling the Library at 362-2330.

Group for widows/ widowers meets

Widowed Outreach of Lake County, an organization of widows and widowers of all ages, sponsored by Condell Medical Center, meets on the fourth Sunday of every month at Condell Medical Center Conference Center, 700 Garfield Ave., Libertyville. Meetings begin at 2 p.m. after refreshments.

Newly widowed men and women are welcome. The group also shares social events each month, boat trips, plays and potlucks. Dinner at a local restaurant after the meeting is optional. For more information, call 362-2900, ext. 6275.

Parents Without Partners to meet

The Lake County Chapter of Parents Without Partners is planning a Newcomer Orientation scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m. in Spring Grove. A house party will follow the orientation. All single parents in Lake County are invited to attend. Prospective members may join at this time. Dues are $30 annually. Call the chapter at 265-0633 for further information and directions.

4-H Explorers looking for members

The Round Lake Explorers 4-H Club is looking for new members, age 8 to 18. The new season of the 4-H Explorers is offering computers, electronics, reading and photography. Interested participants should contact Ann Otto, club leader at 546-7551.

Women's Club offers activities

Those new to the area or interested in meeting others with similar interests are invited to join the Lake County Women's Club. The club offers members morning coffees, bridge, golf, bowling, couple's socials, lunch outings, needle craft, out and about group, theater, antiquing, ethnic dining, book club and more. Call Peg at 356-1512 or Sue at 872-2016 for more information.

Investment planning for women

Many women are navigating a course in financial success as they take control of their financial futures. Cook Memorial Library, 413 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, has invited Tammy Pratsky to present an educational seminar that will show how to evaluate your investment personality and what steps you should take to feel more comfortable when making investment decisions on Feb. 19 at 7 p.m. at the Civic Center. Registration is required. For more information, call the Library at 362-2330.

Drop-in bridge continues at Gorton

Bridge instructor Ginny Schuett will continue leading drop-in bridge sessions, "Bridge Plus," at Gorton Community Center, 400 E. Illinois Rd., Lake Forest. The sessions are held on one Wednesday of each month. Players can practice bridge, have fun and earn masterpoints. Come alone, with a partner, or a foursome. A 15-minute lesson will be given before actual play begins at 1 p.m. No advance registration is required, fee is $4 per person. For the next drop-in bridge date, or for more information, call the Gorton office at 234-6060 before 9 a.m. and

MOVIE PICK

No talent shows in 'Spice World'

If you were 12 or 13 back in the 1970s, you idolized a singing group known as the Monkees. Hey! Hey!

A very popular group called Paul Revere and the Raiders came to our County Fair and after they opened with their hit song, they proceeded to lamely try to hold the audience, which eventually started to walk out on them.

Then came Donny and Marie and in the 1980s, groups like Menudo, or Wham! and New Kids On the Block had the pre-teens screaming and collecting character dolls.

Today it's the Hansens, and a group much sexier than their predecessors in keeping with today's youngsters, The Spice Girls.

Just as the 1960s and '70s gave birth to a zillion one-song wonder groups modeled after the Beatles, the popularity of this short skirted, midriff-baring wannabe quintet has already begun to dwindle for lack of real talent, charisma, and the experienced gained in climbing fame's ladder, a lack that is brightly spotlighted in their movie, "Spice World."

If you want your kids exposed to slightly trashy dressing and materialism unbounded, a thing most of today's teens don't need, encourage their attendance at this poorly done flick.

Although the Beatles, the Monkees and sundry other young pop groups were sadly not nominated for Oscars for their film adventures, in a very poor imitation of the Beatles' "Hard Day's Night," we follow these girl-powered lightweight adventures of Sporty, Scary, Ginger, Baby and Posh with their hit songs scattered here and there.

Though extreme, the girls are actually likable at times, more than we can say about their movie. But take heart, there are a few scenes new to the world of pre-teen movie and music buffs as the girls gather around a buddy giving birth. Aren't the '90s enlightened!

"Spice World" is surprisingly rated PG so the age groups that it should appeal to probably won't want to see it. Although the Parents' Movie Guide castigates the film for a few graphic words, the girls' skimpy attire, and the childbirth scene, today's kids might consider "Spice World" a little too tame for their tastes.

We give "Spice World" two stars out of five in its genre class and a negative one star as far as the average movie is concerned.—
By Gloria Davis

The Spice Girls' star begins its fade out in "Spice World," a movie that copies films like "Help!" and "Hard Day's Night" by the Beatles. Although the individual girls are likable at times, the movie itself leaves much to be desired.

Great picks for the shady garden

Shady garden spots have always proved to be a challenge to me. I have a lot of mature (some quite sprawling) trees throughout my landscape that create quite a lot of shade. These shady areas need some brightening up—some color would really help.

Browsing through the gardening catalogues, I have found some interesting and colorful "shade lovers."

The Dwarf Crested Iris is an easy to grow wildflower that forms mats of four to six inch grass like leaves topped with bright blue flowers in mid-spring. Vigorous, rapid spreading and drought resistant. The Etain English Viola is an astonishing color combination of bright yellow, and cool, electric violet. It spreads into a ground cover four to six inches high with flower heads that are an extra-large 1 3/4 inches and blooms in spring and early summer.

The Blue Panda Corydalis is a splendid low perennial, that is a rare combination of colors in shade planter cobalt blue flowers with silvery green foliage. Plants grow in clumps 6 to 8 inches high and 24 inches wide. They bloom heavily in spring and early summer and continuously to fall in cool summers.

The Bleeding Heart is an outstanding perennial which blooms from mid spring to mid fall and produces a non-stop display of fluorescent pink blossoms above graceful, ferny foliage. Try the Golden Queen Globe flower for outstanding color of the brightest golden yellow. Two inch blossoms grow freely on two feet stems. It's spectacular massed in beds, along with the blue flowers mentioned above. Another interesting eye-catcher is the Purple-flowered Periwinkle. This ground cover has glossy oval leaves and dusty rose flowers in late spring.

Others that do great in shade are the Lily-of-the-Valley, Astilbe, Columbine, and Fox Glove, Creeping Myrtle, Violas and the Labrador Violet.

The hostas are a must for shade plantings, both for their beautiful, rich foliage, and their bold, colorful and fragrant flowers. The blue foliage, chartreuse leaves of H. Tokudama and the smooth, powder blue, heart shaped leaves of fragrant blue are real show stoppers. Other fabulous blues are Northern Exposure, Blue Angel and Elegans.

The variegated hostas are real beauties too, try Abba Irresistible, Sunshine Glory, Great Expectations and Sitting Pretty.

Any of the above mentioned shade lovers would be a lovely addition to your garden. Wayside Gardens and Parks are sources for any of these plants.

Journalist Clarence Page to speak at CLC

Clarence Page, a Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist and member of the editorial board of the Chicago Tribune, will speak at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 5 at the College of Lake County Mainstage Theatre. His topic, "America As I See It: The Current Scene" will address issues such as economics, prejudice, crime and education. He also will provide insights on current political issues facing the country.

ARCHIVING: Lake County Museum to open 20th Century exhibits the addition of a small atrium.

Most of the exhibits currently in the history wing will be removed including the oldest exhibit, the barn which premiered in 1980.

One of the most popular items in the current exhibit, the old fashioned water pump, will be moved outside and the rest of the exhibits will be given a rest with the exception of a few artifacts such as a mastodon bone.

"Our mall of history isn't going to be like you're going into Hawthorn Mall. It's a way to organize a lot of information in what we're calling stores," said Hamilton-Smith. "Amazingly there is a lot of information. People may think Lake County History can't be diverse and rich as say Washington D.C. but it is it's just different history."

The exhibit begins with the "Roller Coaster to History." Visitors will sit in a roller coaster car where they will watch an audiovisual presentation of an aerial tour of Lake County and an overview of history from prehistoric times to the present. Artifacts flanking the video wall will be illuminated in sequence as they pertain to the presentation.

From there visitors enter the "Lake County Mall of History." The mall will feature 11 destinations or "stores."

These include: "The Land Store" which focuses on the changes in land use over time based on needs.

"County Store" focuses on business and industry in Lake County.

"Memory Market" will feature artifacts that reflect compelling personal stories about the past and present.

"Chicago Connection" will focus on the ongoing relationship between Lake County and Chicago.

"Nature Store" will benefit from the new windows, actually a small atrium which visitors will step into and be surrounded by a prairie environment with a view out onto the forest preserve. In this area the history of nature in the county will be presented.

"19th Century Fox" will tell of the impact the county has had on the arts and entertainment industry from the birth of the movie projector to contemporary fiction.

"A Serious Playground including Lotus Excursion and getaways and Hideaways" will tell the history of the county as a destination and escape and will touch on the significance of the lakes.

"Utopia Ltd." tells of the people who formed communities with a vision on how they should live.

"People's Choice" tells the social/political story of the county.

"Habitat Protection Island" will give visitors an overview of the Lake County Forest Preserve's mission. The forest preserve actually operates the museum.

The Curt Teich postcards will also gain more exposure with the "Teich Company Story" portion of the exhibit. The postcard collection is comprised of millions of cards and this section will tell the history of the Teich company. Currently only about 300 postcards may be seen either on display or through slides.

It will include "Millions of Postcards." In this exhibit images of postcards will surround visitors.

They will be able to interact with the exhibit through an electronic menu. They will choose a postcard which interests them. These select cards along the walls will be backlit when chosen.

The postcard exhibits will end with the "Learning Center." This area will describe the inner working of the Teich archives and inform the public on how researchers, publishers and major corporations utilize the collection.

Hamilton-Smith noted the museum is one of national prominence. In addition, it has something no other museum in Chicago can offer, it's surrounded by 2,000 acres of forest preserve land.

"We encourage people to come out and bring a picnic, go to the apple orchard and go hiking," she explained.

By increasing promotion of these features they hope to entice people to the museum who have traditionally visited museums in Chicago. They are also focusing more on the North Shore area of Lake County.

"Traditionally the museum hasn't exhibited much on the North Shore but we will have a whole section on the development of the North Shore... We're trying to appeal to the broad range of people who live in Lake County and it is a broad range from Lake Forest, one of the wealthiest communities in the country to a very rural environment as well as the communities that are struggling economically. It's really diverse here so the museum's goal is to have something that appeals to all of them," she said.

The new exhibit will focus on the many ethnic groups in the county including the large Hispanic population. Hamilton-Smith said a bride only a few years ago donated her wedding momentos, 13 coins, to the museum. They also have a lasso. These items are a ceremonial tradition used in most Hispanic weddings. They symbolize the groom's ability to support his new family and the union of two people.

Hamilton-Smith is particularly excited about one artifact to be included in the exhibit, a telescope manufactured in 1850 in Millburn by William Buffham. She said the importance of what he did at the time escapes many.

"1850 in Lake County is only about 20 years after this was wilderness," she said. He actually manufactured telescopes and microscopes. His great-granddaughter donated the telescope to the museum in November.

Madsen said the idea of reaching new audiences in this project was unique for ATM.

AARP offering seniors tax assistance

In spite of all the changes enacted in the Income Tax Code, for most of us, particularly seniors there have been very few changes that will affect our 1997 returns.

The good news is that the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) through its Tax-Aide Program, for the 30th year in a row, stands ready to aid and assist persons age 60 and over or others with low-to-moderate incomes. From Feb. 2 through April 15, Tax-Aide volunteers will prepare not only Federal Tax returns, but also Illinois Income Tax returns and Illinois Circuit Breaker returns. These returns are prepared at no charge or gratuity.

Those wishing to have their tax returns done should bring copies of their 1996 federal and state returns, and their tax forms for 1997 along with W-2s, 1099s, Social Security summary and any other pertinent data covering 1997.

The Tax-Aide program is jointly sponsored by AARP and the Internal Revenue Service. Counselors in the program have been trained by the IRS. Last year, more than 1.6 million returns were prepared by over 32,000 volunteers.

There are 18 sites in Lake County where assistance through the Tax-Aide program is available. Appointments must be made for some sites, others you are welcome at any time the site is open. Consult the attached list for a site near you.

'Who gets grandma's yellow pie plate?'

Personal belongings such as a wedding photograph, a gold watch or pieces of depression glass hold special meaning for different members of a family. Has your family discussed who will get grandma's yellow pie plate?

What happens to your personal belongings when you die? Who decides who gets what? Planning for the transfer of personal items is an issue frequently ignored until a crisis or death occurs. It may be assumed to be unimportant or a matter that just takes care of itself. The transfer of non-titled property is a concern that impacts individuals regardless of their financial worth, heritage or cultural background. In fact, some personal property items may have very little financial value but may be priceless to a family history.

"Who gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate? Transferring non-titled property" is an educational program designed to help families be prepared when it is time to distribute memory-laden items.

The program will be offered by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service (CES) at the Antioch Senior Center, Tuesday, Feb. 17 from 9 to 11 a.m., 817 Holbeck in Antioch. It will also be offered from 7 to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 19 at the CES office, 100 S. U.S. Hwy. 45 in Grayslake.

The training will be given by Barbara Dahl, retired CES Consumer and Family Economics educator who is also an accredited financial counselor.

The program will assist family members with six key factors:

1. Understanding the sensitivity of passing on non-titled property
2. Determining what you want to accomplish
3. Determining what "fair" means
4. Identifying the meaning of objects
5. Recognizing distribution options and consequences and
6. Agreeing to manage conflicts if they arise.

There is no fee to attend either of the programs, however, pre-registration is required. Call the CES office 223-8627 to indicate which program you wish to attend.

Mobile Health services set

The Lake County Health Dept. Mobile Health Service, supported by the participating townships, will be at the following locations next month:

• Ingleside, Grant Township Hall, 411 Washington St. Feb. 5, 12, 19 and 26, 5 to 7:30 p.m. Phone 587-2233.

• Lake Villa, Cedar Village Apartments, (Sponsored by Lake Villa Township) 310 N. Milwaukee (Rte. 83) Feb. 4, 9 to 11:30 p.m. Phone 356-2116.

• Lake Zurich, Harry Knigge Civic Center (Sponsored by Ela Township) 95 E. Main St. Feb. 11 and 23, 9 to 11:30 a.m. Phone 438-7823. No charge to senior citizens residing in Ela Township.

• Prairie View, Vernon Township Administrative offices, 3050 N. Main St., Feb. 18, 9 to 11:30 a.m. Phone 634-4600.

Available services consist of a physician for diagnosis and treatment of medical problems and school and sports physical examinations. Blood pressure testing and health counseling by a registered nurse are also available. Township residents unable to pay for those services requiring a fee should contact their township supervisor at the number listed above.

Telephone:
(847) 816-3100

Hours:
Lunch served from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and dinner, seven days a week.

Menu:
Large assortment of authentic Indian entrees, specializing in clay-oven baked chicken, lamb and seafood, rice dishes along with vegetarian specialties.

Peacock India - experience the mystic east

For that very special occasion, or when mundane fine dining has become boring, the Peacock India Restaurant will help you experience tastes of the mysterious east.

If it's atmosphere you crave, the luxury of fine linens, fresh flowers and candlelight, enhanced by the lush decor and lilting music from the mystic east, will put you in a romantic and adventurous mood.

First, order a fresh Mango drink while you take your time deciding between the goodies on our menu. Explore the land of delicious kabobs, succulent Biryani, and boldly discover the world of fiery curries, especially in our Basmati rice, or savor the flavor of meats and flat breads as only our Tandoori, clay ovens, can make them.

Our motto is, "eat the specialty of the house." Try our Tandoori chicken, lamb and seafood, and don't forget our massive Tandoori jumbo prawns. The Peacock India is hosting a Tandoori Festival during the month of August.

The tang of yogurt sauces and relishes and our spicy vegetable dishes will awaken your palate as never before.

We don't have to rub our namesake, the blue peacock, for luck, our success is due to experience, good taste, and especially our friendly and professional staff.

The Peacock India has been located in Riverside Ct., in Vernon Hills, for six years. Owners B. K. Bajaj and Sharuntala Chhabria invite you to enjoy the exotic.

A lunch buffet is offered daily from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Peacock India is open for lunch and dinner seven days a week, catering and delivery available. Call (847) 816-3100 for reservations or more information.

Physician acclaimed for unique podiatric surgery

A surgical technique developed and perfected by Nikos Panacos, DPM, 2022 Lewis Ave., Zion, was named after him and described as a procedure which helps "an encouraging number of patients who had been burdened with debilitating plantar verruca" in an article in a recent issue of the medical journal "Podiatric Today."

The "Panacos Graft" involves cutting out wart tissue on one foot and grafting it into the affected area. The transplanted wart creates an autoimmune response in the body, killing the virus which caused warts.

"We feel that the Panacos Graft offers hope to patients who present with one or more intractable verrucae with severe symptoms," wrote the article's authors, Michael Romano, DPM, FACFAS; Ira H. Rex, Jr., MD, and Steven M. Belanger, DPM. "A patient who presented with multiple verrucae beyond enumeration involving both feet, knees, hands and face. Because all previous modes of treatment had failed, this patient asked us to look over the literature and seek out a solution. We ultimately found success with the Panacos Graft," they write.

"The original concept of this procedure was to provoke the autoimmune system of the body to produce antibodies to fight the foreign viral invaders, which could be multiple viruses of different kinds—and that's exactly what it does," says Panacos. "I'm very pleased that this procedure can help people suffering from this very aggravating, painful condition."

Panacos is a 27-year member of the medical staff at Midwestern Regional Medical Center, 2520 Elisha Ave., Zion. Panacos developed his technique while on staff at Midwestern (formerly American International Hospital), which was one of the first hospitals in the U.S. which created a center of excellence for podiatric surgery.

For more information about the Panacos Graft, call 746-2922.

Nikos Panacos, DPM (left) receives a Senate Recognition Certificate from Illinois State Senator Adeline Jay Geo-Karis. Panacos was honored by the state "in recognition of his outstanding podiatric ability and his development and perfection of the surgical technique, the Panacos Graft." Pictured with Panacos and Sen. Victory offers 'Problem Solver' breast imaging test Victory Memorial Hospital is one of only two hospitals in Lake County to offer the recently FDA approved Miraluma™ breast imaging test. "The test is for women who have had mammograms or ultrasounds with difficult to interpret results because of dense breast tissue, implants, scarring due to previous biopsies, multiple lumps or calcium deposits in their breasts," says Lawrence Zarian, MD (Board Certified, Radiologist).

This nuclear medicine test, allows the physician to examine the image of the breast, regardless of these characteristics. Being able to read the correct results from a mammogram or advanced breast imaging can eliminate unnecessary procedures, decrease patient anxiety and assist in early diagnosis of cancer.

Patients find this breast imaging test to be a relatively painless experience. A small amount of clear radioactive liquid (called Miraluma™) is injected into the blood stream. It travels through the body, attaches only to cancerous cells (if present) and emits invisible gamma rays.

A nuclear medicine technician uses a gamma camera (the same equipment used in some cardiac testing) to take a picture of the breast. Results show an image of the breast with a black spot (spots where the material has attached to cancerous cells) or a breast image without any black spots. A board certified radiologist examines these results to identify where the radioactive material has concentrated.

"Although Miraluma™ uses radioactive material, the exposure to radiation is very low," says Armando Saltiel, MD (Board Certified, Radiologist). It has a very short half-life and leaves the body in a matter of hours. This test is especially good for women who have implants, because implants may obscure the results of a mammogram or ultrasound.

Because of the nature of the test, results are quick and provide more information as to whether a woman has breast cancer. "Miraluma™ solves problems that didn't have solutions before," says Dr. Saltiel. "Ultrasounds and mammograms were not always conclusive, and this test gives us one more bit of evidence before considering a biopsy."

"Miraluma™ is non-invasive and gives us better clues to the nature of the breast tissue," says Sean Flynn, MD (board certified-Radiologist). "It will also preclude some women from the need for further surgical biopsies."

"Miraluma™ is not a screening, but a second or third level test used after a mammogram if the mammogram cannot give definitive results," says Dr. Saltiel.

The Miraluma™ test is given upon doctor referral and is covered by Medicare and most insurance plans. For more information on the test call Diagnostic Services at Victory Memorial Hospital at 360-4190.

Walking guru Rob Sweetgall to speak at Condell Medical Center

Rob Sweetgall, the Pied Piper of American Walking and the only person to walk through all 50 states in 365 consecutive days, will be delivering his "Walking and Wellness" message at two presentations at Condell Medical Center on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The first program will be held from 6 to 7:30 p.m., the second from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Both programs will be held at the Allen Conference Center on Condell Medical Center campus, 700 Garfield Ave., Libertyville. Tickets are priced at $5 and reservations are encouraged.

Sweetgall, who has dedicated his life to convincing people to walk their way to health, has walked seven times across America and is also recognized in the Guinness Book of World Records for his 1982-83 10,608 mile foot journey along the U.S. perimeter. Sweetgall helps schools, hospitals, corporations and communities establish walking and wellness programs as president of Creative Walking, Inc.

The author of eight books on the subject, Sweetgall still walks 30 to 40 miles per week in spite of a busy travel schedule training over 30,000 educators and health professionals per year.

Sweetgall invites audiences to walk away stress and excess weight and improve heart health. His message is as direct as his style. "No diets. No gimmicks. The key to lasting weight loss is metabolism."

For reservations and additional information, call 362-2905, ext. 5770.

Teaching children morals, values in a crumbling society

Dear Dr. Singer, I have about had it with trying desperately to teach my children right from wrong and having to fend off the latest scandal from Washington.

How in the world are we supposed to teach our children what is right if the highest officials in our country are always seeming to be involved in wrong.

I am also angry at the news people because they tend to really present it in a way that is hard to tone down for kids. With all the daily violence and their graphic descriptions of everything, I'm highly considering not even letting my children be in the room with the news on anymore. I am very disillusioned and could use a little help in how to explain this to my kids. They are asking questions and I don't quite know how to answer them. Thanks.

Signed....Sick of the Garbage.

Dear Sick,

I can't say that I disagree with you. I am also disillusioned and strongly feel that regardless of your political leanings, you have to be purposely ignoring it to not be disgusted anymore. We try to teach our children how to respect the office of the presidency and right in front of our faces are daily assaults against integrity from the very people in these offices.

Regardless of what the actual

PARENT'S PLACE

facts are (since none of us will probably ever know,) the messages that are coming from this high position are not ones that we hope our children will ever see.

I also agree with you about the handling of this by the media. Of course, their perceived job is to dig for information and then present it in a way that leaves the public panting for more. This in itself begs for sensationalism. I've always disagreed with the incredible levels of notoriety and attention that the news bestows upon all forms of illegal and immoral behavior.

The most basic laws of psychology tell us that the more positive attention we pay to something, the more it becomes a reality and a permanent state of affairs. Does this say that the news would enjoy the prospect of violence becoming an everyday occurrence? I'm doubtful it, but considering the fact that it seems to be job security for them and the fact that we know that sex and violence sell big, I don't think we will see an end to it soon. So, what is one to do?

As far as our children go, good parents know that there is a definite difference between right and wrong. Contrary to what we are being told by all the "so called experts," it is usually fairly easy to tell the difference between them.

Right and wrong are not subjective positions and it doesn't matter what the surrounding situations are. I have met a lot of parents who try to use that position (right and wrong being subjective) in terms of not telling their children what to do and their children learn to become expert at blaming the situation, the nearest person, the sun and moon and the stock market for anything they ever do. To me, this is the most unhealthy way to approach anything with children. Morals, values and convictions are the very things that form backbone and strength of character.

Dealing with your children on this issue is quite the same as dealing with any other form of distasteful behavior in others. Let's change the players in this situation to be other kids in your kid's school.

Let's say that your child comes home and tells you that he thinks Johnny may be taking drugs. If you're honest, your first reaction is to tell your child to not take any chances and stay away from Johnny. You aren't going to tell your child that you don't know for sure and you should be with him more to find out and that if he has actually taken drugs, to still hang around with him because there might be reasons why he did it and you shouldn't judge it and it may not be wrong that he did it. No parent in his or her right mind would say things like that. For the safety of your child, you would jump to a conclusion and ask your child to be very cautious and avoid any potential problem by avoiding Johnny.

You know in your own mind and heart that taking drugs would be wrong and you certainly don't want your child involved in it. You let your child know strongly what is right and wrong regardless of the actual facts. So, don't feel guilty about allowing your children to know that the types of behaviors being discussed are wrong and should not be done. Certainly, you can wait for facts to be clear before discussing things, but the suggestion of these ideas can clearly be demonstrated to children as wrong. Don't feel guilty about protecting your child from hearing the sensational version and the talking heads that claim that right and wrong doesn't really exist.

When questions come up, I would downplay the presidency position and talk about good and bad decision making in human beings. It may be a bit confusing for kids because they have been taught to look at the president, any president, as a icon on a pedestal. A person who deserves great respect and now that respect is in question.

Actually, it may be a good lesson for all kids to learn that it is good to be a critical thinker and to question things and not automatically assume that just because someone is in a position of power that they should be trusted and revered. There have been many powerful people throughout the ages who have abused power and have created scandals.

Unfortunately, to a certain extent, we are all trained in this country to excuse behaviors based on position and that is not a healthy way to think. Human beings are frequently making bad decisions and it shouldn't matter what their position is to know that a behavior is wrong.

Certainly, no one has the facts yet about the latest presidential scandal so it is not a good idea to be going around letting your children hear you talk about facts that don't exist. If you are angry at the president, you have a right to be that, but I think you really need to wait and see what the facts bring out.

Don't ignore questions your children have because it will only serve to increase curiosity and mystery. Tell your children that sometimes people make bad decisions that get them into trouble and emphasize the fact that as long as they keep making good decisions, they can be proud of themselves.

Sometimes it isn't a pretty world to live in, so we have to make the best of our little corner of it.

Teaching Kids Useful Skills to Solve Everyday Problems

PSTMC Child & Adolescent Intensive Outpatient Program Staff

It's easy to overlook the fact that many of the problems which children and adolescents experience may be due to a lack of basic skills in handling conflicts, controlling impulsivity and expressing thoughts and feelings through words instead of action. This presentation will review ways in which kids can be helped to develop their own problem-solving abilities and gain mastery over the difficulties they face in everyday living.

Safe Sitter provides sitting tips

Safe Sitter, Inc., a national not-for-profit organization that trains adolescent babysitters in child care, has developed 10 tips for parents when seeking a babysitter. Safe Sitter classes are offered through Lake Forest Hospital in partnership with The Volunteer Bureau of Lake Forest/Lake Bluff.

1. Be Early. Many sitters accept jobs several weeks before the date and receive more than one offer to babysit on any given weekend. If you have a regular sitter, it is worth the extra effort to book him or her well in advance rather than trying to adjust to a new sitter.

2. Be Realistic. Evaluate the babysitting job you have to offer and determine if the job is too long or too much responsibility for the age and experience of your sitter.

3. Be Fair. Agree on the fee ahead of time. Tip if there is extra responsibility or effort. Expect to pay more on holidays.

4. Be Honest. Let the sitter know up front how late you intend to stay out and what the sitter will have to do. Determine in advance that the sitter is mature enough to handle the job.

5. Be Prepared. Prepare the kids and sitter for any loud celebration that may be going on the neighborhood during holidays. Do not allow any wild celebrations in your home while you are away.

6. Be Responsible. If needed, make sure there is a designated driver, or the sitter's parent, to drive the sitter home.

7. Be Considerate. Call ahead if you will be returning later than you planned and be sure to let the sitter know if there are changes in the phone numbers where you can be reached during the evening.

8. Be Safe. Make sure your house is safe, child proof, and locked up tight when you leave the sitter and the children for the evening.

9. Be Cautious. Make sure there are adult back-ups readily available in case of an emergency. Contact neighbors, friends, or the sitter's parents to make sure a responsible adult will be at home in case help is needed.

10. Be Creative! Make the night a fun one for your children and the sitter. Some small effort such as games, rented videos or special treats can make for an eventful evening.

Lake Forest Hospital and The Volunteer Bureau of Lake Forest/Lake Bluff recruit teachers on an ongoing basis and are looking for adult volunteers interested in teaching the Safe Sitter program. Adults interested in teaching babysitting tips, child care and child safety to adolescents should contact The Volunteer Bureau of Lake Forest/Lake Bluff to sign up for the spring 1998 instructors' workshop.

Safe Sitter programs are taught at over 850 hospitals, schools and community organizations throughout the country. Since its beginning, Safe Sitter has trained more than 130,000 young sitters.

AT MIDWESTERN REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

Mammogram: $49

All month, by appointment

A mammogram can help detect cancer before you can see or feel anything. Our caring and conscientious imaging specialist will fully explain the procedure, answer your questions, and complete your mammogram, usually in less than 30 minutes. Results will be sent to your personal physician. For an appointment, please call 847/731-4100.

Free Screening: Blood Pressure Check

All month, by appointment

Have your blood pressure checked by a healthcare professional at one of the physician offices listed below. Call the physician closest to you to make an appointment.

Support Group: Breast Cancer Support Group

Monday, February 2 7 - 8 p.m.

A support group for women affected by breast cancer. Share experiences, explore ideas, and express your feelings among a group of women who know what you're going through because they've been there too. For more information and to register, please call 847/746-3158.

Free Clinic: Children's Immunization Clinic

Saturday, February 14 9 - 11 a.m.

Midwestern and the Lake County Health Department team up to provide low-cost immunizations for children during a walk-in clinic at the hospital. For more information, please call 847/872-6062.

CPR Class: $25

Monday, February 16 6 - 10 p.m.

Cardiac arrest, breathing interruption and choking are life-threatening situations which require fast, skillful intervention by a trained person. Learn how to initiate CPR and other life-saving techniques during an evening class presented by a certified American Red Cross Instructor. Class size is limited. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Talk: How Nutrition Lowers Cancer Risk

Wednesday, February 18 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Eating the right foods, knowing how to cook foods to retain their nutritional value, and taking the right vitamins and supplements may help some people lower their risk of getting cancer. Find out what you can do for yourself and your family by attending this program presented by a registered dietitian who specializes in cancer prevention and treatment. Class size is limited. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Screening: Peripheral Artery Disease (PAD)

Saturday, February 21 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

If you are over 50 and experience leg pain when walking, tingling, numbness or coldness in your legs or feet, you may have a blood circulation disorder called peripheral artery disease (PAD). This condition is highly treatable if detected early by a simple, non-invasive ultrasound screening. To make an appointment for the screening, please call 800/940-2822.

AT CANCER RESOURCE CENTER

Mammogram: $49

Walk-in Wednesday or by appointment

Every Wednesday, no appointment is necessary for a mammogram at the Cancer Resource Center. Just walk in, sign the appointment book, and in less than 30 minutes your mammogram will be completed by a caring and conscientious imaging specialist. Cost is $49, including reading and interpretation by a Board-certified radiologist. Appointments are also available throughout the week. Please call 800/940-2822.

Free Talk: Managing Everyday Stress

Monday, February 2 7 - 8 p.m.

Everyone experiences positive stress and negative stress everyday. This program helps you understand why you experience stress and how your body reacts to it. Learn practical relaxation and stress reduction techniques to help you stay in control. Presented by Michael Williams, Psy.D. Space is limited. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Talk: Alternative Medicine in Cancer Treatment

Wednesday, February 4 7 - 9 p.m.

Dr. R. Michael Williams, MD, PhD, senior medical director and chief medical officer of Cancer Treatment centers of America, recently presented this lecture to a capacity crowd of 1,000 people in Tokyo, Japan. Come hear the English version of this fascinating overview of the latest in alternative cancer treatments - sesquiterpene gamma lactones, antineoplastons, enzymes, Reiki therapy, traditional Chinese Medicine, and green tea. Please call 800/940-2822 to register.

Free Screening: Cholesterol and Blood Pressure

Thursday, February 5 8 - 10 a.m.

This simple finger stick method provides results for a total cholesterol screening. Fasting is recommended but not required. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Talk: Guidelines for Healthy Living

Monday, February 16 2 - 3 p.m.

This program will review the fundamentals for a healthy balance among the spiritual, psychosocial, physiological and environmental aspects of your life. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Advice: Ask the Nutritionist

Wednesday, February 18 1 - 4 p.m.

Walk in or call in! A registered dietitian will be available at the Cancer Resource Center to answer your nutrition-related questions. If you have high cholesterol, want to lose weight, or just want to eat better, this is your opportunity to "Ask the Nutritionist!" Please call 800/940-2822.

Free Screening: Colorectal Cancer Home Test

Tuesday, February 24 10 a.m. - 12 noon

Colorectal cancer is one of the most frequently diagnosed cancers affecting men and women over the age of 40. A simple do-at-home test detects one of the early warning signs - hidden blood in the stool. Receive a screening kit and have your questions answered by a healthcare professional. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

Free Talk: Cancer and Antioxidants

Thursday, February 26 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Vitamin A and carotenes. Vitamin C. Vitamin E. Selenium. Green tea. What are the latest research findings on these antioxidants and cancer risk? What is the best way to get these antioxidants? How much is safe? Dianne Parsons, from the Natural Web food store in Deerfield, will provide answers to these and many other questions. Taste a sample of green tea from China. To register, please call 800/940-2822.

SPRING BRIDAL SHOWCASE

Forest Preserve Wedding Extravaganza set for Feb. 28

Brides-to-be and wedding planners: mark your calendar for the 5th annual Wedding Extravaganza on Saturday, Feb. 28 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Lake County Forest Preserves' Brae Loch Golf Course in Grayslake.

Admission to the Wedding Extravaganza is $2 and includes a fashion show by Doris' Bridal Boutique in Highwood and Gings Formal wear of Vernon Hills and Waukegan. Lake County Merchants will be on-hand to assist prospective brides and grooms in gathering information about the many details involved with their special day. Music will be provided and free refreshments will be available.

Following the fashion show, a drawing will be held for lots of prize giveaways, including a grand prize. Must be present to win. For more information, call Brae Loch at 223-5542.

Organization is the best cure for 'wedding jitters'

It's normal for the bride to get a case of "wedding jitters" before the ceremony. However, it is vital that all of the last-minute details have been taken care of. Whether it be the bride, herself, or, most likely, a good friend assigned to the tasks at hand, it is important to get everything completed.

According to "The Wedding Organizer" (The Wedding Organizer Inc.), by Abigail Kirsch, creator of Abigail Kirsch Culinary Productions Ltd., one of the most successful wedding catering companies in America, the following are some helpful reminders of tasks that brides might forget need to get done.

- Place a note on the front door reminding the bride and her attendants to take gloves, pocketbooks and bouquets before leaving for the ceremony.
- Assign someone to check out the reception site to make sure that all the flowers have been delivered, the cake has arrived and seating cards have been set out.

• If the bride or family members want ceterpieces taken home, tell someone beforehand to be in charge of collecting them before the guests take them and there are none left.

• Give a list of special group photos to be taken, perhaps of cousins, classmates and office mates to the photographer.

• Assign someone to signal the organist that the ceremony is about to begin.

• Make every attempt to be on time. Every minute delayed throws off the next step: the food preparation, the band or disc jockey, even down to the ice in the water glasses. Everyone that day has a schedule; don't complicate it by being late.

A toast to good health to the Bride and Groom

"In Sickness and in health." These words from traditional wedding vows emphasize the importance of taking care of one another. As couples begin their married lives, they look forward to a lifetime of joy, happiness and good health.

What better way to congratulate newlyweds than to give them a gift that can help them achieve and maintain a healthy life? "Mayo Clinic Family Health Book" has been a popular choice as both a wedding and shower gift. The hardcover, comprehensive book, which has been recognized as the number one medical reference, helps couples find accurate answers to questions like how to handle and store food properly, how to get motivated to exercise regularly, ways to manage stress, and how to safety-proof their home.

Special sections on staying well, essential first aid and emergency care, genes and your health, diseases and disorders, modern medical care, and health through the years make this a gift that couples will use again and again.

To order directly from Mayo Clinic Call 1-800-291-1128 ext. 800.

Gang bangers get own medicine from special force

Special operations unit roves from town to town driving out the gangs

By JASON J. KING
Staff Reporter

It may still be in its infancy, but local officials believe the Round Lake Area Special Operations Unit is making a difference.

In October 1997, the villages of Round Lake, Round Lake Beach, Round Lake Park, Round Lake Heights and Hainesville entered into what was then called, "a historic and unique agreement."

Each of the five participating police departments contribute personnel to a daily shift of two officers who ride together and respond to any gang related activities throughout the area.

Round Lake Park Police Chief Bruce Johnson said since October, hundreds of arrests have been made by the unit.

"Everything from felony warrants, possession of cocaine to traffic stops and DUIs," said Johnson of the arrests. "It's made an impact and they also help to safeguard the schools."

The unit is unique in that village boundaries do not apply when on patrol. Johnson said it is also unique in that it is the only such unit of its kind in Lake County.

"There's the Lake County Gang Task Force and the Repeat Offender Strike Force, but they're not permanent units," said Johnson. "I can't think of another shared resource like it."

"It is effective," said Round Lake Beach mayor Ralph Davis. "When one town did gang sweeps (in the past) they just got in their cars and moved to a different town.

"We got an indication in the first few weeks that it was driving the gangs nuts," he added.

It's effective because the towns are able to work together and share information on gangs and gang members.

"We've been gathering a lot of intelligence and have made a lot of contacts," said Johnson. "The task force is an excellent example of bringing the individual strengths and talents of each individual department together."

Johnson went on to praise the individual officers for their work on the unit.

"I feel that the officers from all the villages are doing a great job," he said. Davis agreed with Johnson.

"It's encouraged the officers from the different departments because they're working together now," said Davis.

Round Lake Park mayor Ila Bauer said she was pleased with the unit's work so far.

"I think it's a fiscally responsible use of our resources," said Bauer. "At this point it seems to be working very well."

An important aspect of the unit is

'We got an indication in the first few weeks that it was driving the gangs nuts.'

Ralph Davis,
Round Lake Beach mayor

the gang hotline (740-INFO). Residents are encouraged to report any gang or suspicious activities to the hotline.

Johnson said he personally would like to see more residents use the hotline.

"We'd like to see more individuals use it, and see more kids use it as well," he said.

Davis believes that residents just want the departments to attack the gang problem.

"We've said from day one that we have a gang problem and we've rolled up our sleeves to fight," said Davis. "I haven't heard a lot of comments from residents. They just want something done."

Johnson said the one of the main issues concerning the unit is funding.

"Nobody budgeted for this last year," Johnson said. "We'd like to be able to sustain this indefinitely."

Johnson said he has heard positive comments from other county chiefs and departments, but none have said they planned to mirror the unit's structure. He believes part of the reason is because of the Round Lake area's boundaries and configuration.

"We were kind of destined to do this because of the configuration of the area," said Johnson. "It seemed like a natural progression for our area."

Lovefest '98 builds on romance, roulette

LoveFest was such a success last year, Antioch Chamber of Commerce officials have found it easier to create this year's celebration of romance.

LoveFest in 1998 is romance codded in the ambience of the S.S. Antioch, a cruise ship with a license to gamble.

"Because of last year's success, it has been easier to find people to donate their time and energies towards LoveFest '98, which will be held Saturday, Feb. 7 from 7 p.m. until midnight at the VFW Hall on North Avenue in Antioch," said Barbara Porch, Vice-President of the Antioch Chamber.

Porch said that planning has been underway for ten months and the results have become evident.

Six people will win a Weekend Get Away prize. Tickets are sold as 4 for $10, or $3 each. Area banks and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry office also have tickets available now. A mini-roulette wheel and VFW Hall's lucky chance pull tabs will also be available.

A Starlight Lounge will feature music by the Scotch Lads in a return performance. "Passengers enjoyed the music of the Scotch Lads and the great ambience we created," Porch said. "They are great at getting everyone involved, whether it's a bit of rock and roll or swaying to the music of legend greats."

Patty Ryan of Olde Tyme Deli, Billie Horton from the Village Community Development Department, Shirley Zientek of the Gift Basket, Wendy Maston and Robin Kessel of Quilter's Dream, Inc., and State Bank of the Lake's DeeDee Palmer are each involved in special features of the evening.

"Last year twelve restaurants participated, guaranteeing enough food for all," said Porch. "(Ryan) is coordinating the restaurants to ensure an appetizing array of delicacies."

Horton and Zientek will create a "magical evening under the stars." Porch said, "Our tropical island is a wonderful spot to pose for a photograph." Passengers are asked to bring their cameras. "Wendy and Robin are busy sewing decorations to create a star-lit evening for this cruise."

There is Palmer's Shipwreck Tavern for those who wish to buy beverages not circulating through the punch fountain at the Grand Buffet, according to Porch.

Porch expects this year's cruise and Chamber fund-raiser will be "a magical evening under the stars." —

Strip bar owner doesn't take bait on opening teen night club

By SPENCER SCHEIN
Staff Reporter

The former manager of the topless incarnation of Offsides Sports Bar near Mundelein apparently wanted to reopen it as a teen club, something area residents and members of the Citizens for Community Standards wanted as well.

However, neither the bar's new owner nor the area's Lake County Board member took the bait.

"He is through with this property," Diana O'Kelly (R-Mundelein), said of Anthony Belle, who on Jan. 21 staged a press conference outside of the shuttered Offsides, located at 26228 N. Route 83 in unincorporated Diamond Lake.

Belle showed up with a rented truck, wanting to remove some items such as tables, chairs, a stereo system and a briefcase reportedly containing $34,000. He ended up leaving with nothing, after new owner Sharon Gavrilos disputed his assertions, and stated the briefcase full of cash, and bank and club receipts were missing.

Belle told a small throng of reporters, area residents and Lake County Sheriff's deputies he had made an offer to Gavrilos to buy or rent the building and manage a 21-and-under club at Offsides, closed since Dec. 31 due to court orders which proclaimed Gavrilos as the majority operator of the club, as she holds 51 percent of its ownership.

O'Kelly was glad to see Gavrilos turn his offer down. "My concern for the community is the next business that is going to open (there)," she said.

"I have had two people contact me who are interested in Offsides in purchasing the property for a restaurant," O'Kelly said. She passed this information on to Gavrilos who, aside from speaking at open court hearings, has refused to speak to the media.

Mobile home fire victims extend personal thank you

From the Weidner/Horne family, a big "thank you" goes to:

The public, for all the donations and support

Karen, Sue, and Diane for immediate response putting up flyers, running newspaper ads, calling and caring.

Everyone at Lakeland Publishers, (people I don't know) for immediate donations.

Everyone else at ADX. My co-workers, Cindy, Kimberly, Eileen, Renee, Joanna and Sara; including the drivers for delivering everything from Lakeland to ADX.

Thanks guys.

Ken Schnur and family for the furniture and toys and stuff.

Jim at Nu-Diamond Glass for his generous donation.

The Mick family, also, for their generous donation.

Barb Johns for Wal-Mart certificate.

Thank you.

A big "thank you" to the anonymous donor didn't leave a name or address, who sent me the TV Sega, the pan set and K-Mart Certificate.

Thanks so much to Mrs. MacBane for the calling for the couch.

Mrs. Daneslu, (?) my neighbor in the apartment building, (who I discovered also works at Lakeland). Thanks for everything you brought over. (I'm sorry I forgot your first name, but thanks).

Jack and Sara for being there immediately and opening your house for us and everyone in the world.

Also for your driveway and helping by picking up my kids and everything. Thanks a lot.

Ben and Lynn, for taking my dogs and offering your support.

Mark and Sissy for coming right away, and letting us stay for the night.

My mom for getting the kids clothes and stuff right away, and all the babysitting.

My brother, Ted and his girlfriend,

Tina for bringing us out clothes and being there for us right away.

Jen, who was freaking out for a couple days. I'm sorry for not coming down right away. Thanks for helping out with the kids.

A big, huge thanks to my cousin Jim and his wife Lisa, for the clothes and also being there for us and for all the help. Thanks a lot, Jimmy.

My other cousin Kevin who is another person who offered a lot of help and the use of his van. And a pre-thank you for the work in my new house. (You know I'll be calling you for that.)

Winnie for helping out right away when we thought we needed a hotel. (and the offer, if we need anything.)

Dawn, for offering support right away and "if you need anything."

Alison and her mom Ann for packing us bags and thank your friends, too.

A big thanks to my Aunt Rose who was here right away with food and clothes and toys as always.

Thanks for the kennel and tape, sorry I never got back to you on that. Thanks for always being there.

Debbie for helping out with the realtor and Eugene for offering to help.

My Aunt Doris for also bringing stuff to us right away, it meant a lot.

Debbie, for the apology and offering help if we need anything. Thanks a lot.

Kathryn and Dale Brown for immediately helping out with clothes, blankets, etc., and please thank your friends for me also, thanks.

Last, but not least, my sister Shiela and husband Ben for coming out right away and all your help, not only in this situation, for ALWAYS being there for me. I don't know what I'd do without you.

Love ya lots.

To everyone who called and offered support and help.

I am grateful for the Salvation Army, the Red Cross (Ken from the Red Cross who made me feel a lot better-cheered me up); Catholic Charities; Calvary Presbyterian Church (Round Lake); Grayslake Police Station for various donations.

I apologize if I left anyone out, I didn't mean to, but this Thank You goes out to much more people than I mentioned. All the public and personnel who helped make everything so much easier on us. Took a big edge off of stress and worry to wonder how we were going to replace everything.

And finally Thanks to, Jason for writing a wonderful article.

Sincerely,

The Weidner/Horne Family

CLC Alumni Association establishes scholarships

The College of Lake County alumni association has established a scholarship program to assist students who are immediate family members of CLC alumni or alumni who have returned to CLC for further education. Recipients will receive $50 per credit hour up to 12 credit hours during the current academic year.

New and returning students are eligible to apply for the scholarship program. Applicants must be enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours at CLC and maintain at least a 2.5 grade point average. Applicants must be related to a dues-paying member of the CLC alumni association.

Interested candidates must submit a scholarship application, write a 500 word essay describing career intent and need for the scholarship and provide an official academic transcript. For complete information, call the financial aid office at 543-2062.

AT A GLANCE

A DIGEST OF STORIES MAKING HEADLINES THROUGHOUT OUR REGION

Sunset Foods opens in Libertyville

Libertyville — Grocery shoppers in Libertyville now have another option, which promises to pamper patrons.

Sunset Foods, the long awaited grocery store opened on Tuesday, in the Butterfield Square shopping center at the corner of Butterfield and Peterson Rds.

T.J. Tazioli, director of marketing, said the new store offers shoppers a different shopping experience than what they are used to.

"We're the best in the business when it comes to service," he said.

That service, said Tazioli, is what the store is banking on for its success.

Removal of underground tanks

Wauconda — Village trustees have made a decision that many other Illinois communities either have or will have to make—deciding what to do about potentially leaky underground fuel tanks.

The village is soliciting bids for the removal of an in-ground waste oil tank and an in-ground diesel fuel tank at the Wauconda Sewage Treatment Plant, 302 Slocum Lake Rd., and for the installation of one diesel bulk tank and one diesel fuel tank at the plant.

"The tanks need to be upgraded per the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency by '99," said Trustee David Wanshek, chairman of the board's public works committee, at the board's Jan. 20 meeting. The new tanks will be installed above ground.

Improvements planned

Mundelein — Village trustees approved the first step towards improving the downtown business district and beautifying the entranceways into the village with two directives approved at the Jan. 26 board meeting.

Village staff was authorized to seek engineering proposals for the first phase of improvements to be made in the area of Route 45 from Hawley Street to Park Street and north to Seymour Avenue, and the study of placing a traffic signal at the intersection of Route 45 and Park Street.

"The goal is to get more people into that area," said Trustee Steve Powell, at the Jan. 26 Public Works Committee meeting held before the board meeting. The entranceway plans to five existing and four proposed locations, which will cost $117,500 and will be completed this May.

Chamber matches Brook donations

Antioch — In 30 seconds, Antioch business owners placed 20 to 28 percent of the cash money on the table that Village officials seek to raise for the William E. Brook Memorial Wetland Sanctuary and Entertainment Center.

Construction of wetland basins in the project area started Jan. 21. That work is itself a donation by Centegra Primary Care Network.

Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry officials made the donation at their Jan. 21 business meeting. They also received an update about downtown redevelopment and improvement plans at their breakfast meeting from Claude LeMere, village community development director.

At the end of the presentation by LeMere, Chamber President Barbara Porch said, "At this point, CAN would like to contribute $10,000 for the project." She waited 5 seconds and said, "The Chamber will match that. You now have $20,000."

LeMere accepted the contribution for the community. "This is certainly an example of the way this community functions," he said. "It is a community second to none. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

"Our goal is to raise all the funds for this entire (wetlands restoration and entertainment center) project from grants and donations," LeMere said.

LeMere said that the village hopes to raise between $70,000 and $100,000 of cash money for the project. The money will meet project expenses and serve as in-kind share matches for grants from state and federal sources.

Computer bill flap resolved

Libertyville Township — A heated exchange between Libertyville Township Supervisor F.T. "Mike" Graham and township Highway Commissioner Wayne Kick and the last meeting of the township board was, to quote Shakespeare, "full of sound and fury, signifying nothing."

The township board gave its approval to a resubmitted bill by Kick for computer equipment for the highway department.

At the Jan. 8 meeting, Graham questioned why it took Kick eight months to submit the bill and why one of the items was not purchased with the correct tax exempt status.

Kick called the error a simple oversight saying he has no timetable in which he needs to submit a bill for reimbursement.

Graham said the township road department, in his opinion, "has been cutting corners for a long time."

Fire at Technology campus

Grayslake — A small fire broke out in an early childhood education room at the Lake County Technology Campus Jan. 27, at approximately 9 a.m. No students were in the room at the time.

The fire was accidentally ignited when the instructors were making clay. According to Grayslake Deputy Fire Chief Greg Formica the classroom sustained approximately $500 in damages due to cabinets above the stove being ruined. The fire extinguished itself before the fire department arrived, but the building was briefly evacuated because it filled with smoke.

Gurnee selects Friedl new fire chief

Gurnee — One by one, Gurnee firemen greeted their new boss as he stood outside Gurnee village board chambers.

"Congratulations chief," they all said, most accompanying with a hearty handshake.

The recipient of the kudos and warm wishes is Fred Friedl. He will be the new Gurnee fire chief, effective Feb. 1. Gurnee trustees officially accepted the retirement letter of chief Tim McGrath. McGrath begins in Brookfield, Wis. on Feb. 1.

Friedl will be sworn in as new Gurnee chief Feb. 2.

"I feel very honored," Friedl said. "I did not know what to expect. Tim has done a lot for the department - I can't say enough about him. Over the last two years, I have been impressed with the department and the concept of teamwork."

Friedl previously worked at Wood Dale Fire Dept. He served as chief there for eight years.

Pease to make peace

Fox Lake — Jack Pease, the developer of the Sunset Ridge Development, a 150-acre development site located at Route 12 and Fox Lake Road, has some serious issues to contend with before breaking ground.

For starters, they are going to have to show contiguity to the Village of Fox Lake, something that they have not been able to do.

"They have to show contiguity to the village before they even are allowed to come before the board," Mayor Jim Pappas stated. "They have not shown us contiguity yet."

On order to show contiguity, Pease must bring a signed petition before the planning and zoning commission of residents who are in favor of the Pease development. Then and only then, Pappas states, will the village listen to his proposals.

Lindenhurst meets watch captains

Lindenhurst — Community residents moved ahead with creation of their village neighborhood watch program with the announcement of initial block captains.

Lindenhurst village officials also moved forward to offer support to the group in terms of anticipated signage, funding management assistance, and promotion of the group's meetings.

Four dozen village residents and community officials assembled in village council chambers to learn the names of initial block captains and their roles. District Coordinator Rebecca Albrecht announced people who would meet with their block residents to discuss participation by watching neighborhood activities.

Mayor Paul E. Baumunk said that the village is prepared to place signs where there is a strong neighborhood watch program. The signs will be there when need he told the group. The village public works department will install them. He also offered some village printing resources and stated that the village could accept financial donations in behalf of the group. "It will be a completely separate line-item for accountability," Baumunk said. Donations made to neighborhood watch through the village also would be tax deductible.

The Mayor further said that he would be promoting the work and community building function of the group in an upcoming issue of the village newsletter. Baumunk said his message will be: "Ask your neighbors to think seriously about getting involved."

Albrecht encouraged community residents to keep posted about the activities of the community program by calling 847-265-8852.

NAYB holds spring tournament

Lake County — North American Youth Basketball announced that they will once again be holding a spring youth basketball tournament, one of several tournaments in their eighth annual spring tournament series, for the greater Chicagoland area April 17-19 at Dundee Crown High School. Other area sites will also be used. Last year, 125 teams entered the tournament.

This tournament will feature ten different brackets. They include 5th-6th grade boys; 5th-6th grade girls; 7th grade boys; 7th grade girls; 8th grade boys; 8th grade girls; 9th-10th grade boys; 9th-10th grade girls; 11th-12th grade boys; 11th-12th grade girls. All grades are based on the grade in which a student is enrolled.

For additional information or an entry form, call Dave King or Mark Garrigan at the NAYB toll-free tournament hotline at 1 (888) NAYB-ASK (1 (888) 629-2275).

House seat goal directing strategy

Democratic House Speaker Michael Madigan has made no secret about crafting a state ticket that can help him retain critical south suburban House seats needed to preserve his narrow Democratic majority.

Madigan's support of Orland Park Police Chief Tim McCarthy for his party's nomination for secretary of state over a downstate white state senator and a black Cook County politician bespeaks loudly of his strategy. Madigan's preference has kicked off protests in Democratic ranks both downstate and in Chicago's African America community.

The Democratic leader's "protect the House majority" strategy could have a big impact on Lake County politics, especially if the speaker targets the open 62nd Dist. of north Lake County for Democratic acquisition. The 62nd is being vacated by State Rep. Bob Churchill (R-Lake Villa) in his campaign for Illinois Secretary of State and could be vulnerable to a Democratic take over, particularly if Republicans leave themselves scarred and divided by a divisive fight over who will succeed Churchill.

Since no one filed for the Democratic nomination for state representative, party leaders have the option of slating a candidate. Madigan has the luxury of waiting to see how things turn out on the south side before deciding to see if a legislative district containing Antioch, Lake Villa, Newport, Zion and Benton townships and part of Grant Township and the City of Waukegan is worth fighting for.

This long "safe" Republican district could become one of the hottest Illinois general election battlegrounds during the fall campaign if Demo bigwigs decide to intervene.

COMMENTARY

Stop public school tax heist

Editor's note: A Jan. 9 editorial was critical of Gov. Edgar's veto of legislation providing a $500 state income tax credit to Illinois families sending children to private and parochial schools. The following commentary, written by the president of the Illinois Education Assn., the teachers' union, supports the veto. By Bob Haisman Certain members of the Illinois General Assembly are poised to launch an effort to override Gov. Jim Edgar's veto of HB 999, the private school tax credit bill. Their quest is totally misguided and probably unconstitutional.

Edgar was courageous in his veto, facing up to tough opposition that would have us believe that public moneys should rightfully be used to fund private schools and academies. Public schools exist for all children and operate to provide the best possible education for students regardless of their geographical location or social and economic standing. Private schools are extremely selective. They opt to educate only the few; those they select.

Contrary to what some politicians are saying HB 999 is not targeted to low-income families who want to change from public to private schools. If HB 999 becomes law, poor kids won't benefit. Rich and upper-middle income kids will. A Chicago example shows that the average private school family makes $41,549 a year, while the average public school family makes some $22,080 per year.

The nearly $150 million in public school funds that are at stake here would seriously erode the results of the funding bill just passed by the Legislature. In addition, data show that where private schools and academies get a foothold, their lust for public school dollars turns into a gold rush to stake ever increasing claims on public taxpayer resources. What now may seem like a "fair" proposition to some, will surely turn into highway robbery of public schools.

As if the notion that public school funds should only be for public schools isn't enough, a veto override of HB 999 would violate the Illinois Constitution. The constitution prohibits using public funds for religious purposes. That prohibition is even stronger than the U.S. Constitution. If HB 999 becomes law, millions of state dollars will be wasted fighting in court.

And last, but not least, a veto override of HB 999 would create a massive open-ended entitlement with no specific revenue source. It's like giving private schools and academies the secret password to the general treasury's ATM machine. HB 999 would require the state to somehow pony up even though there would be no designated funds for the private school tax credits.

And where would that money come from? The answer is clear. From funds that should go into creating fairer funding for public schools and more educational opportunities for the vast majority of Illinois' school-children.

The Governor's veto of HB 999 must stand.

VIEWPOINT

Fearing the worst, Americans watch, wait

Many Americans, benumbed by six years of scandals and countless charges of improprieties in the Clinton White House, again are reeling over allegations of reckless behavior on the part of the chief executive.

Only this time the disbelief swirls around the heads of liberals, Democrats, Friends of Bill and the vast majority of the populace unmoved by improper presidential conduct who normally close ranks at any signal of alarm, rallying to the defense of President Bill Clinton.

What's different about the Monica Lewinsky scandal?

Bimbo eruptions, turning the White House into a motel for wealthy campaign contributors and regurgitating life in the backwaters of Arkansas is one thing, but Americans seem to be drawing the line at the thought of their president running a harem in the Oval Office.

Or as Jay Leno puts it so indelicately, the Oval Office.

As a father and grandfather, I am repulsed at the possibility that the holder of the highest office in the land would exert power and influence over a starry-eyed, idealistic young woman bent on finding her place in the world for sexual favors. Having an affair with a street-wise governmental professional is one thing, but preying on a female intern not much older than your own daughter is quite another case.

What the new legion of doubters about Bill Clinton apparently fear is that the man in whom they believe is a sexual predator. Americans are known for their patience and tolerance, but they have limits. They are watching and waiting, hoping for the best, but you know in their hearts they are fearing the worst.

Live ski jump

Before television and world class skiers being put on display in your living room, an incomparable winter event hereabouts was the annual Norge Ski Club's annual jump competition at Fox River Grove. The world's best ski jumpers would attract 30,000 to 40,000 spectators for the mid-January event begun nearly 100 years ago.

This year's competition drew only about 5,000 persons, but club members already are making preparations for 1999. I still have vivid memories of Torger Tokel, a

Social commentary

During a snowmobiling sojourn in northern Wisconsin, an ad in a local newspaper sponsored by Spooner Community Memorial Hospital caught this observer's eye. The ad contained photos of nine newborns, welcoming them to the community and congratulating their parents. Four of the babies had parents with different surnames. The mother only was listed for three of the infants. Two of the babies had parents with the same last names. A commentary on life in the north woods. Or life in general. Get ready for a report on Lake County births.

Bowled over

Your reporter retired a long time ago as a sports writer and should have stayed retired. Wrong score and wrong team for the Super Bowl. The Green Bay Packers took a legitimate whipping from a Bronco team that came to win. Line play of Denver was magnificent. As a Packer fan, my most enjoyable moment was John Elway's endorsement for newspaper reading by children. Well, put John. And enjoy the ring!

Big Apple debut

Former friends and classmates of aspiring Libertyville actor Charles West, 33, are bemused by his entry to center stage via a Jockey underwear ad on a Manhattan billboard. Two other Libertyville actors first gained fame in New York, Marlon Brando on the stage and Craig Heubing in television. Brando still is available for film work, but Heubing, 68, is retired and resides in Oregon.

Wonder seat

The response of Illinois industry to filling societal needs is legendary—tractors, engines, reapers, railroad cars, pharmaceuticals. Now comes a Joliet company with a simple solution to a universal need, a portable toilet that fits every occasion and, no doubt, every bottom. Fentool Inc. is marketing a portable toilet packaged flat in a resealable plastic bag that can be folded and even carried in a back pack. Comes in adult and child sizes that can be assembled within seconds. Tota-Toilet could become as common as a tooth brush or a compact CD.

Bring back paper

Julian Muskat of Waukegan is conducting a one-man campaign to bring back paper election ballots. Muskat mailed copies of an article on the foibles of electronic voting to all members of the Lake County Board. Muskat is a Republican precinct committeeman who has been studying how easy it is to rig voting machines for 30 years.

PARTY LINES

PARTY LINES, THE LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS' COLUMN OF POLITICAL OPINION, IS PREPARED FROM STAFF REPORTS.

And they're off in Dist. 15

The primary race for the District 15 County Board seat got started at last Thursday's Libertyville Township board meeting.

Robert A. Ostroga, the former Village of Libertyville trustee who is seeking the district seat, was in attendance at the meeting, offering township Supervisor, and primary opponent, RT. "Mike" Graham some words of advice concerning township insurance matters. Incumbent Carol Calabresa, the other candidate in the race, was not at the meeting.

Ostroga, who handed out campaign flyers and complimentary tickets to his fund raiser scheduled for Saturday at a famous Libertyville watering hole, promises a clean, non-negative campaign, "based on the highest ethical standards."

A big oops

Charlie Johnston, campaign manager for GOP Secretary of State hopeful Robert Churchill, resigned his post last week after he was arrested on charges of driving under the influence in Round Lake Beach on Tuesday, Jan. 20.

Johnston was observed by a patrol officer driving erratically. He subsequently failed a field sobriety test during a traffic stop and refused a breath test.

In a statement, Churchill said, "Although he is innocent until proven guilty, my campaign cannot afford even the appearance of tolerance when it comes to driving under the influence."

Especially since outgoing Secretary of State George Ryan led the charge in lowering the state's legal limit from .10 to .08 last year.

Churchill staffers believe the arrest will not harm the campaign due to Churchill's swift action when accepting his resignation.

Ostroga:

McSweeney:

Seeks name recognition

David McSweeney, 32, a Palatine Twp. trustee, is getting his name recognized in Lake County. McSweeney is challenging veteran GOP legislator Phil Crane (R-8th Dist) for Congress in the March 17 primary.

McSweeney has been active in political elections since he was a youngster. He was a great envelope-stuffer during the Reagan campaign in 1980.

A former Crane supporter, McSweeney says he is challenging the Congressman because he has become ineffective in recent years and is no longer considered a front-runner for a greater leadership role in Washington, D.C.

McSweeney has been making fundraising appearance at fellow GOP functions. He was on hand at the fundraiser for Dist. 2 county board candidate Larry Jones at the old Wadsworth Post Office two weeks ago.

Making law

Freshman legislature Mark Beaubien continues to make a name for himself in the State House.

This week he guided the juvenile justice act through the House, which seeks to identify career criminals before they begin their careers in crime.

"This bill attacks the root of the problem and focuses on early intervention as a key strategy to help young criminals deter from a life of crime."

The Illinois Department of Corrections reports that its juvenile prison population has risen more than 80 percent in the past four years. The Juvenile Justice Act is intended to curb growth and reform teens.

Oh, phooey, here comes February

Well, well, well, look what's just around the corner — the month of February again.

That bugger never gives up, does it? Some folks like February, but I don't mix with them because they are hardy souls: skiers, snowmobilers, ice fishermen and people who still build snowmen. I like snowmen, I still get a kick out of seeing one, but I'm past the point of wanting to build one.

A certain woman, whose intelligence and great taste I live in awe of, says, "Isn't this a wonderful time of the year? I love it. We need this change in seasons; except, of course, when it gets way below zero."

She's right, a white coverlet of snow is lovely, if you don't have to shovel it. Fortunately for me, my neighbor Terry plows my long driveway.

Weather-wise, February can be fiercely fickle. The average temperature is supposed to be 27 degrees, but two years ago upon arrival it was 20 below. Last year on Feb. 1 it was 40 above. Go figure.

Many of our friends and relatives, circumstances permitting, escape to the South, at least for February if not all winter. Those of us who stay behind call it Cabin Fever month, also known as Four-Wall Frustration, marked by, my dictionary says, extreme irritability and restlessness from living in isolation or a confined indoor area for a long time.

Two of our most presidential presidents were born in February, Abe Lincoln on the 12th and George Washington on the 22nd. (Bill Clinton's birthday is Aug. 19. Valentine's Day might have been more fitting; editorial cartoonists keep drawing him in boxer shorts with hearts on them.)

The word February comes from the Latin "Februa expiation period," a time for making atonement — sort of a purgatory. I find that fitting.

THE PFARR CORNER

Jerry Pfarr

Maybe because February, by nature, isn't a heck of a lot of fun, we live it up with all kinds of observations and celebrations. February 2 is Groundhog Day, the 14th is Valentine's Day, the 16th is President's Day and the 25th is Ash Wednesday.

Also, February is American Heart Month, American History Month, Black History Month, Canned Food Month, Creative Romance Month, Great American Pies Month, Human Relations Month and Humpback Whale Awareness Month.

On top of all that, February is National Blah Buster Month, National Cat Health Month, National Cherry Month, National Children's Dental Health Month, National Condom Month, National Develop Your Self-Esteem Month, National Grapefruit Month and National Snack Food Month.

And, finally, it is Return Shopping Carts to the Supermarket Month.

Ah, yes, but no thrilling Packer games on television.

Stores try to lure us out of our February doldrums by offering Cabin Fever Sales. Some bars, I notice, have "Beach Parties." Those attending must wear beach attire — in February! Is that bizarre, or what?

Shakespeare hated February, he wrote of "barren winter, with its wrathful nipping cold." But another poet of his time, Anne Bradstreet, saw the bright side: "If we had no winter, the spring would not be so pleasant."

And spring is only 49 dreary days away. I'm counting.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

David & Goliath story needs clarification

Over the last two months, numerous articles and letters to the editor have been published regarding what would seem to be a David and Goliath like encounter between the Village of Round Lake and Marianne Amann. I am the Village Attorney for Round Lake and I write to clarify the actual circumstances involved. Amann purchased her property for under $70,000. Her homesite is landlocked and her only access is over land owned by someone else. That access is over a dirt and gravel driveway extending approximately 1/3 of a mile to Route 134. Amann's property is not in the Village of Round Lake, but the driveway is. To the best of my knowledge, the owners of the land have always permitted her use of the driveway and have never suggested that she could not use the driveway.

The property surrounding Amann's homesite is now being developed pursuant to the Owner's Planned Development Agreement with the Village. The single family homes intended for this area will be very substantial and sell in the range of $200,000 to $300,000. The Village has never sought to acquire Amann's homesite, but only her acknowledgment that the driveway may be improved and upgraded to a paved, Village street, complete with curbs, storm sewer and sidewalks. The Village has on two occasions offered her $500 for what is essentially her acknowledgment that she is not the only one that can use the right-of-way for access to Route 134. The Village has also invited Amann to advise the Village if she feels there is any property right she has in the driveway that should be valued for more than $500. Having had no response from her, the Village filed a condemnation action asking the Court to determine what will justly compensate her for having the driveway improved to the standards of a Village street.

It seems to me that someone under these circumstances might be relieved to know that the owner was not going to contest her use and was going to provide an improved access, free from any future need for maintenance and snow removal, that the development of the area would be with single family, high quality homes.

Instead, Amann seems to have had an epiphany and realized her desire to have a hog farm complete with a billboard announcing her "hog farm" location, in case, I assume, anyone driving by on Route 134 needs to pick up a live pig on the way home. While whether or not Amann can have a hog farm is a matter of Lake County Zoning and not a matter of Village regulation, the Village is rightly concerned that drainage from such a hog farm may have an adverse impact and cause contamination of Valley Lake as well as Squaw Creek. Although we expect and hope that Amann will proceed responsibly in terms of safeguarding against such contamination, and we wish her economic success in her new venture, we also note that to get those hogs to market, a new street would clearly be to her advantage.

In fact, I doubt that Amann has any actual desire for hog farming, but rather sees this circumstance as an opportunity to extract a windfall by embarrassing the Village and the property owner. Through her attorney, Amann has now advised the Village that she would settle this controversy if the Village buys her homesite for $400,000. All things considered, I believe the Village of Round Lake and the property owners are more deserving of public sympathy than Amann.

Round Lake

Fomenting discontent

I write in response to the letter "An archaic attitude" by Suzanne Harris which is based upon and filled with misinformation and bias.

The Village of Round Lake did not finance the Lake Lure business district with bonds or any other form of financial instrument.

The village entered into an agreement with the storeowner to locate with-in the village in exchange for the rebating of one-half of any sales tax collected for a limited period of time. If no sales tax is collected, no sales tax is rebated. No resident tax dollars are involved in this type of transaction. This is a popular and widely used inducement to new businesses to locate within a particular community.

In the condemnation suit filed by the village an offer of $500 was made in good faith with a request to negotiate if Ms. Amann had reason to believe a greater amount was appropriate. There was no response from the landowner and it is impossible to negotiate unilaterally.

The village and its residents are not funding any of these endeavors. The landowner or developer benefiting from the action in question, as always, pays any legal fees or expenses in this village.

It is disappointing that non-village residents find it necessary to fabricate untruths on subjects of which they have no knowledge with the apparent purpose of fomenting discontent in a community in which they do not live.

I suggest that there is an abundance of legitimate concerns needing to be addressed in the unincorporated areas, rendering these quixotic forays into other communities a complete waste of time and an affront to the neighbor's lives into which they are intruding.

The latest scam

How any voter can take FT. "Mike" Graham seriously about anything is beyond me.

FT. "Mike" Graham was routed out of office because of the biggest scandal in Libertyville Township history. An FBI investigation, double billing of Township funds, not paying his property taxes and the legendary welfare rolls in Libertyville Township, all led to his leaving of office.

Come on voters, you can see through this latest scam.

Displaced water

This is for the woman who wrote in Fox Lake in the Jan. 16 issue about water displacement with the riverboat. What about the 20,000 boats inserted into the water every weekend? Isn't there water displacement there?

Against bypass

I'm against the bypass for Route 22 in Lake Zurich, even though I'm a resident, because: it will create another busy road in our town, it will bring strange intersections, it will bring more traffic, and it will be a mess with construction.

Lake Zurich

Benefit of the doubt

I would like to remind everyone young and old that kids are human too. There are a lot of good, honest, anti-gang teenagers. These are the ones that have it tough. The ones that do care and are trying hard to resist pressures out there. On Jan. 15, my kids walked to White Hen Pantry to buy soda, candy and a magazine. They were seen as shoplifters because they were reading magazines and they had big coats on. The clerk didn't even bother to see if the magazines were still there before calling the police. The kids were taken totally by surprise and searched at the window, in front of the public. It is unfortunate that teens have to be treated this way. They'll remember this for a long time. Let's remember to give kids a fighting chance and be sure next time.

Round Lake Beach

We're insulted

I'm calling about Channel 7's Cerebral Palsy Telethon coverage. They took a station break for World News Today. As a person with cerebral palsy, I was offended that they're taking this so lightheartedly. They should put forth the effort to stay on once they go on. There's a lot of people in Illinois that need help. Channel 7 should take this matter a lot more seriously. This was an insult to victims of this disease.

Thanks, paramedics

My wife and I have lived in this area for about five years now and the only time we ever had to call for an emergency was last Sunday morning. I want to commend the Round Lake paramedics for their excellent job in treatment of my wife. The response time was tremendous and they took good care of her. Thank you very much!

Round Lake

Reality check

This is in response to the comment titled "Good job, officer." Look around, there's so many other things going on here. If you're going to congratulate a police officer for arresting kids with spray paint, you ought to get a police scanner and listen to what's really going on.

Space is gone

I think it's ridiculous that Grayslake Elementary School is running out of space when they only built the school two years ago. Why didn't they think when they built the school and made it a two-story or bigger? They should have known, this town is growing like crazy. In the meantime, our taxes are going up and up. The newcomers aren't paying for the schools yet, but we have been.

Grayslake

Bill was great

Happy to hear Bill Brooks will be remembered with a memorial project. He did many wonderful things for Antioch, as did his family.

Antioch

What democracy?

It's amazing at how even at the lowest level we do not have a democratic government. Have you tried to call the mayor? Have you sent letters to your trustees? They don't even answer them. It's obvious that locally our trustees and mayor are not in control and the same people that have been working for the village are.

Lake Zurich

Solution Part II

I'm calling in regard to comments that were printed "Accident is waiting." The solution was printed as being easy, changing pickup time for the students on Rena to 7:50 a.m. The full solution was not printed. The other part of that solution is that children remain on the east side of Rena, because the bus goes through the subdivision, comes back northbound, and this prevents the kids from having to cross the street.

Go, Linda

On elections, go, go Linda Hess. Let's clean up the Willard mess!

Round Lake

Some representation

Rep. Crane does not represent the people in his district. He refuses to support the Quiet Communities Act, so obviously he's supporting the big pro-airport politicians. Let's time we go to the voting booth, let's not vote for those who won't do something about the airplane noise. They can send us four page letters and tell us they have no control, but it's not true. They don't care about us, so why should we vote for them?

Take a class

To "Just a warning," if you get a ticket, the officer will tell you that you will get a 50-day suspension and your record will not be marked if you take a special driving class the court offers you.

Don't get paid

I am responding to "You got a party" in the Jan. 23 Lipservice. I'm a teacher and I don't get paid for the two-week Christmas break or the summer vacation. And I didn't have a party.

Ingleside

Offended by article

As a resident of the Wauconda area, I'm offended about the article in Jan. 23 Lakeland about the Libertyville female wrestler. Did you know that Wauconda High School has a female wrestler? Why don't you get your facts straight!

Wauconda

Watch out for kids

As a mother of two children that have to be picked up by a school bus in the Heritage Trails, I'm appalled at how the service people in the area and the construction trucks and workers, can't adhere to the 20 mph limit. There's children standing on the corner waiting for the bus, and they constantly have to jump back for these trucks going as fast as possible. We don't have sidewalks to stand on. Why can't they adhere to the speed limit? It's ridiculous that I have to stand there with my children because I can't be sure they're safe. Someone should take care of this problem. Maybe the police should circle the area and give some tickets to these people.

180 days only

I'm a teacher and I would like the author of "You got a party" to know that by contract, teachers work 180 days and are paid for those days only. We do not receive paid holidays or paid summer vacations. This is a popular misconception. Many teachers do elect to cut their paychecks during the school year to allow for summer payment, but this benefits the school district, who earns interest while holding the teachers' pay.

Call corporate

Comedy Central...if you guys want it, ask for it. Call TCI Corporate Office at 1-800-800-2824. Tell them you want Comedy Central back in your system.

Listen to officer

Here's some advice for "Just a warning" in the Jan. 23 Lipservice. Listen to the police officer He'll tell you that you have three options. One is to pay the fine by mail, two is to take a traffic safety class in order to get supervision, and three, appear in court. You do not have to ask the court for supervision. You can obtain this through the traffic safety school. Next time, listen to the officer instead of getting mad and angry at him.

They'll do it again

There was an underage drinking party in Wauconda recently and the police were informed. The person gave them information rather than signing an actual complaint. If the police had knocked on the door and talked to these kids, they might not try it again. As it is, they all got away with it. They were in a house whose owners were out of town. They're going to keep trying it again. These were 15-year-old kids and the beer was stacked in the living room by the case. I'm a very upset parent and apparently the only parent that knows and cares about this.

MINDING YOUR OWN BUSINESS

Don Taylor

Missing the Mark(et): Some history lessons

When I hear someone say that marketing is easy, I flinch. Marketing is not easy. It never has been and probably never will be.

It may actually be getting tougher to hit your target market because there are so many ways to miss a market. For example, some businesses fail to realize when a market has peaked. Other firms actually bring products to the marketplace with no target in mind. Still others pick out a target, but don't come close to hitting it.

Missing the mark in marketing is not just a small-business problem. It happens to large firms as well. We can study some marketing mistakes by big companies if we look back in history just a few years.

A Classic Mistake

Twelve years ago, Coca-Cola changed the formula of the best-selling soft drink in the world. The company wanted a new product to compete for the younger "Pepsi generation." They moved away from the baby boomers who had made the brand so popular.

The boomer generation was 21 to 39 years of age when Coca-Cola introduced the "New Coke." Most boomers would rather fight than switch, so Coke quickly brought back the original boomer-generation product.

Coca-Cola Classic is still the drink of choice for a powerful market demographic. The lesson here is to remember who your best customers are and give them what they want.

A Mini-Mistake

Ten years ago, the fashion industry decided to do a re-run of the miniskirt. They soon found that the women who had embraced the fad 20 years earlier were now older, had jobs, families, fuller figures and more modesty.

These older female buyers were already disillusioned with high clothing prices and they said "no thanks" to the fashion industry's offer of less material for more money. The lesson here is just because it worked once, doesn't mean it will work again.

A Leader Gets Lost

The best way to become a leader in marketing is to become a follower. A follower of your customer's needs and wants, that is. In 1990, Sears lost its number one retail position to Wal-Mart. Actually, Sears fell to third place as Kmart also blew by the former retail powerhouse.

Sears, a retail leader for more than three decades had lost its way. The big-box discounters offered more choices and lured customers away with everyday low prices.

Sears had settled into the comfortable rut of serving a middle-class consumer with middle-class products and pricing. As the middle-class family declined, interest rates climbed and real income diminished. The customer demanded value and Sears didn't respond. Now seven short years later, Wal-Mart is nearly three times the size of Sears.

The lesson here is to stay close to your customer. How big you are Home Show has seminars, personalities

Almost 100 booths featuring new homes, home products and services; seminars on interior decorating, kitchen and bath remodeling, window treatments and other subjects; personal appearance and book signing by Bob Yapp, host of "About Your House" TV show; autograph signing by Keith Magnuson, former Blackhawk star; and thousands of dollars of door prizes are all part of the 1998 Lake County Home Show, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1 at the Lake County Fairgrounds.

The Lake County Home Show set attendance records in 1997 and this year's show will be bigger and better than ever. Information and conversation about products ranging from custom homes and community developments to decks and fixtures will be available. Services such as financing, remodeling, landscaping and others will be featured also.

Radio station WXLC will do a live remote broadcast from the show from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, featuring live interviews, music and conversation. Show visitors can register to win two United Airlines roundtrip tickets to anywhere in the continental U.S., including Puerto Rico. Other door prizes will include dinner certificates to local restaurants, autographed sports items, small electronics items and more.

The 1998 Home Show is sponsored by the Homebuilders Association of Lake County and will be held at the Lake County Fairgrounds, located at Route 45 and Route 120 in Grayslake. Admission to the show is $3 per adult; children under 12 are free. Parking is also free. Dollar off coupons are available in many area banks and in newspapers.

Area Chevrolet dealers donate car to charity

The Illinois Spina Bifida Association announced it will again participate in the Chicago Automobile Trade Association's "First Look for Charity," a preview of the 1998 Chicago Auto Show to be held at 7 p.m. Feb. 6, at McCormick Place South. The chairman of the 1998 Chicago Auto Show is Raymond J. Scarpelli, president of Raymond Chevrolet/Oldsmobile/Geo in Antioch and Ray Chevrolet/Geo in Fox Lake.

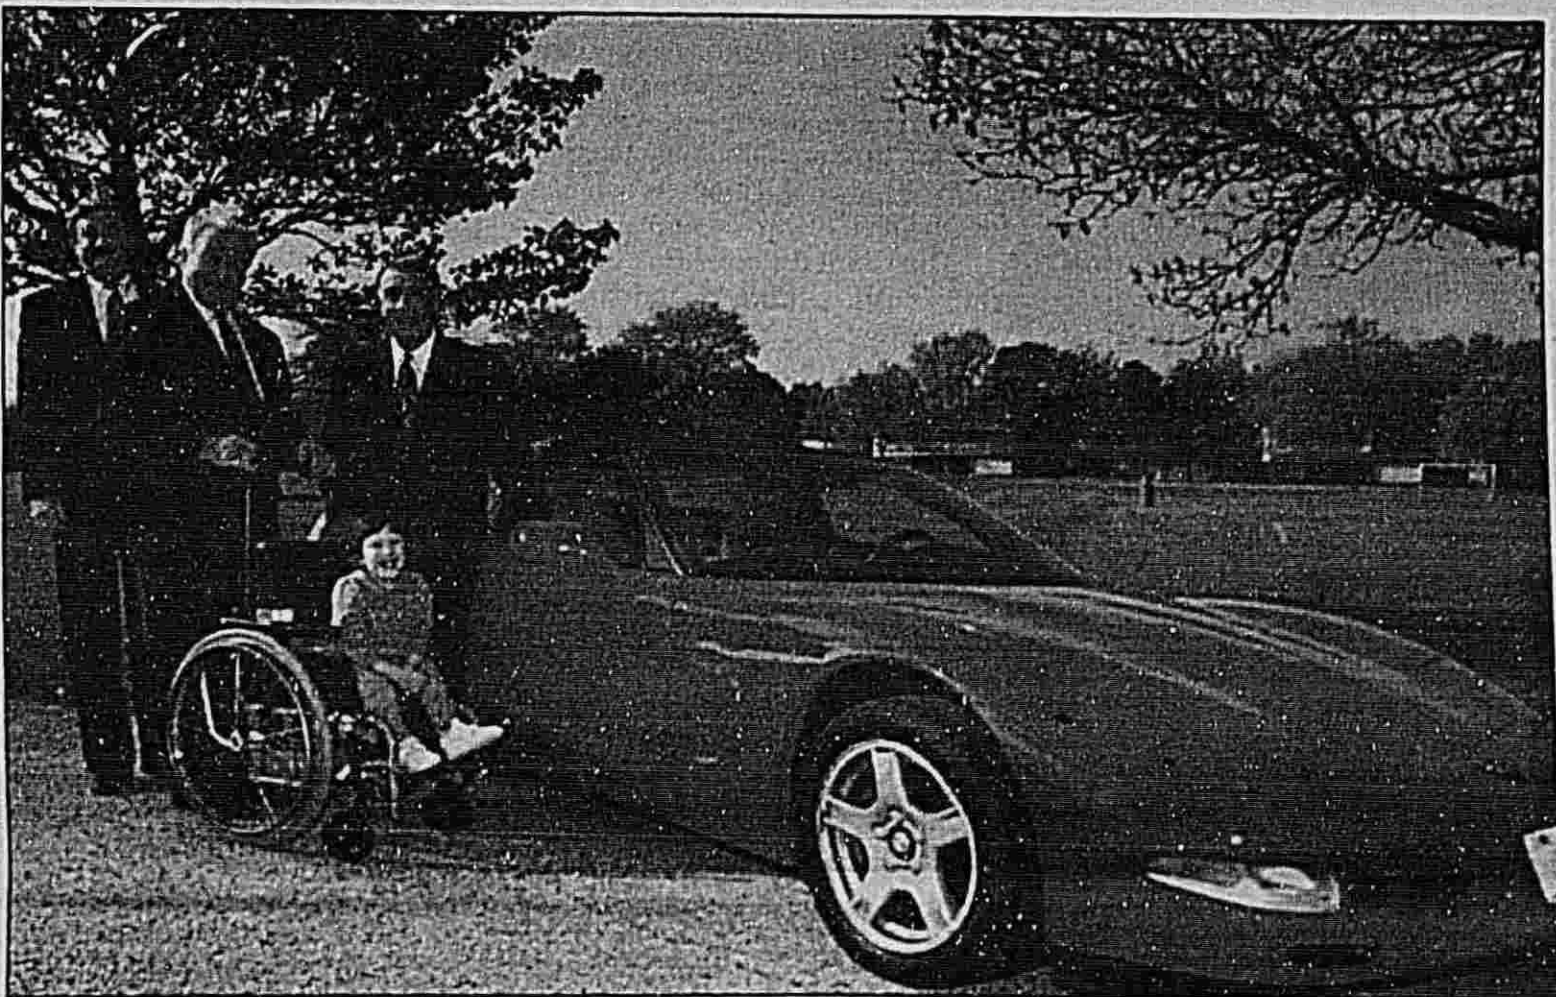

Highlight of the "First Look for Charity" gala will be the presentation of a 1998 Chevrolet Corvette convertible to a lucky attendee. The Corvette will be awarded with the compliments of Chevrolet and Chicagoland Chevrolet Dealers Association.

Honorary Celebrity for the event is legendary former DePaul basketball coach Ray Meyer. Ann Walsh Cernak, executive director, Illinois Spina Bifida Association, said, "We are particularly fortunate this year to have legendary basketball coach Ray Meyer as Illinois Spina Bifida Association's Honorary Celebrity for the event."

Cernak added, "We are grateful for our continued association with the Auto Show Preview, one of the Chicago area's premier social and charitable events."

For a number of years, these charity previews have been held the evening before the formal opening of the Chicago Auto Show to enable invited guests, celebrities, elected officials and automobile industry leaders to preview exciting automotive exhibits while benefiting local charities.

Over the past six years, the black-tie galas have contributed more than $5 million to local charities. "First Look for Charity" is expected to raise in excess of $1 million for a total of 12 organizations again this year.

The Illinois Spina Bifida Association provides direct services to persons with spina bifida throughout the state, including educational seminars, family outreach programs, school scholarships and assistance with equipment purchases and therapy.

One of ISBA's key activities is Camp Ability®, a residential summer program to help youngsters with spina bifida learn independent living skills and improve their self confidence.

Spina bifida (open spine) is a defect of the spinal cord, usually causing paralysis from the waist down. It is the nation's number one disabling birth defect.

Tickets for "First Look for Charity" are $125 each and, Cernak emphasized, the entire amount goes to the charity designated by the ticket purchaser.

The ticket price includes wine, champagne, and extensive hors d'oeuvres, plus an opportunity to win the Corvette.

Information about the Spina Bifida Association and tickets to "First Look for Charity" are available from Ann Walsh Cernak, (630) 637-1050, or 1-800-969-ISBA.

Investing is topic of seminar

The public is invited to a free dinner and seminar titled "Investing For All Economic Climates," at The Meadows 21, 1760 N. Milwaukee Ave. in Libertyville on Wednesday, Feb. 4, at 6 p.m.

At this seminar, Denis Walsh, CFP, CFS and president of Money Concepts Financial Planning Centre, will share a common sense, conservative and defensive approach to managing money while encouraging solid growth—a truly safety first approach to investing.

Recent studies have shown that over 91 percent of the return on investments will be determined by how assets are allocated.

For reservations for the seminar or more information, call 680-9050, or 1-888-680-9050.

Sandbagger Corp. introduces new product for bagging materials

The Sandbagger Corporation, Wauconda, is making its first product diversification with the introduction of a line of multi purpose bagging machines that increases production by 500 percent compared with the filling of bags the traditional way.

The newly developed MultiBagger® is designed to handle all types of materials including compost, mulch, blended soils, worm castings, aggregates and other landscape materials. Until now the four-year-old company has made only machines for sandbagging purposes and is the leader in this field.

Stacey Kanzler, president, said the MultiBagger features a 10 horsepower engine with an electric start to insure smooth handling. She said it has many applications for use by the general public as well as public works and other government departments.

The operator friendly MultiBagger can have as many as three operators at one time at their own filling station. The machine is engineered to alleviate back strain and fatigue. The unit is safe to operate and easy to transport from site to site.

Kanzler said, "This is a machine the waste management industry has been looking for since general public awareness has increased concerning the importance of recycling and diverting yard waste materials from land fills to composting facilities.

For more information, contact the Sandbagger Corp. at P.O. Box 626, Wauconda, IL 60084 or call toll-free at 1-800-770-SAND.

First-time home buyer fair slated

The Corporation for Affordable Homes of McHenry County (CAHMC) is hosting a First-time Homebuyers Fair on Saturday, Feb. 14 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the McHenry County College Conference Center in Crystal Lake.

This free fair will offer information to prospective homebuyers regarding the home purchase process. Seminars will be presented throughout the day covering topics such as Evaluating Your Credit, Working with a Realtor, Home Inspections, Energy Efficiency Mortgages, Home Insurance, Working with an Attorney, Obtaining Financing, and Down Payment Assistance for Qualified Buyers.

The ComEd Power Bus will be available for touring and fair attendees can sign up to win door prizes from local merchants. "Purchasing a home can be a daunting process. Many people do not know where to begin," said Julie Biel Claussen, executive director of CAHMC. "This is a great way for first-time homebuyers to meet a variety of real estate professionals who will be able to answer any questions they may have."

Taught by successful entrepreneurs and business professionals, the program will cover various topics related to owning a business. Individuals may attend the full program for $280 or register for individual workshops at $30 per session.

To register, call 543-2033 or fax to 223-9371.

Geo-Karis fights to extend property tax freeze, hold county tax base steady Responding to the recent closing of the Zion Nuclear Plant, state Senator Adeline Geo-Karis is fighting to keep Lake County's tax base at a manageable level. Commonwealth Edison announced Jan. 16 that it would not reopen the plant. This means the loss of 801 jobs.

Last fall, Geo-Karis (R-Zion) fought for a three-year freeze on depreciation rates used in assessing the property taxes of nuclear generating stations. This would, in effect, freeze their taxes until the turn of the century.

When the state legislature meets next week in Springfield, Geo-Karis intends to introduce legislation that will lock in depreciation rates at those levels until the plant is completely dismantled.

"The closing of the Zion Nuclear Plant will greatly affect our tax base," said Geo-Karis. "These areas will suffer from the loss of jobs and the loss of energy. It's only fair to the areas where the nuclear plants have been located that ComEd should continue to pay property taxes at the levels decided in 1997."

According to Lake County's tax extension and redemption department, Commonwealth Edison paid an estimated $19.9 million in property taxes last year on the Zion plant. Ten taxing districts, including schools and libraries, split the money.

"We can't expect homeowners to pick up the difference in property taxes. Our property taxes are high enough already," said Geo-Karis. "We need time to bring in new business and new jobs."

Geo-Karis met with representatives from Commonwealth Edison last week who say they will work with employees to find new jobs possibly at other ComEd plants.

Geo-Karis and Lake County Board Chairman Robert Grever have scheduled a public meeting for Friday, Jan. 30 at 10 a.m. at the Lake County Board Offices on the 10th floor. ComEd representatives will answer questions from state lawmakers, members of the county board, and any interested individuals.

TAYLOR: Marketing is not easy is not nearly as important as how quickly you respond to your customer's needs and wants.

Miscellaneous Marketing Mistakes

Of course there are other major marketing mistakes. For example, the classic "all-of-our-kids-in-one-cabbage-patch." Coleco found that variety is the best way to outlive a short-term fad in the toy business.

Burger King tried a Herb-the-Nerd promotion that bombed, because consumers were lead to believe that only nerds went to Burger King. Ford Motor Company didn't think the world needed a big, fat station wagon. Consequently, Lee Iacocca produced the market-share grabbing mini-van when he headed at Chrysler a few years later.

In marketing, mistakes are expensive. Missing the mark is easy. As we roar into the next century, niche marketing will intensify. Stay close to your customers and remember your marketing history lessons.

How To Survive The Job Search
By Nancy Sakol

Dear Searcher,

I am writing because I am sick of working crummy jobs! I was employed with a great company for over 4 years and burned my bridges with them when I left last April to follow a girlfriend who was moving out of state for employment. Needless to say...that was short lived and I returned to find that I was no longer welcome in my former position or company for that matter. Since that time I have gone through 3 jobs and I'm sick of it! When I go for an interview, the first thing that seems to be asked of me is why I have been job hopping. I am not being hired for any good jobs, so I am forced to take anything to survive. What do you suggest for someone in this rut?
M.M. - Zion

Dear M.M.,

Leaving your job of 4 years plus on the "if-comes", is now water under the bridge and basically you can't get that back, so move on! You say that your last 3 jobs were all crummy, however your biggest problem right now is overcoming the job hopping question during an interview. Find yourself something that you can tolerate for at least a year, hopefully longer. Get some sense of stability in your work history again, and perhaps the question of your job hopping will not be brought up to you. Therefore making it possible for you to not have to make excuses. Good Luck!

Dear Searcher,

As an owner of a new start up business, I am in need of going on to a computerized system instead of working everything manually. My problem is, that I need to find a way to train my employees and myself without the major expense of time off. How do you suggest going about this and is there such thing as an economical way to do so? Thanks!
L.G. - Lake Bluff

Dear L.G.,

The type of equipment and software you have purchased, will dictate to you the expense involved in training. The good news is there are plenty of computer consultants who will come on-site to your location for group or one-on-one training. Prices vary tremendously so beware. Also, the other alternative is to contact your local college for a list of computer classes. Sometimes these classes may be spread over several weeks which may or may not be suitable for you to teach the staff. But there are those we have found that are mini courses over a weekend or over a few evenings. Feel free to contact me and I'll be happy to provide you with further info.

and clearly miserable. Some dogs just can't cope with the noise and commotion of a shelter environment. Babe is a sensitive dog, and she will only thrive in a loving home. Babe desperately needs to have a nurturing, ongoing trusting relationship with that special someone who will surround her with the gentle affection she yearns for. Calm and attentive, Babe will respond beautifully to consistent, positive reinforcement and encouragement, and become again a happy, confident, contented girl. If you have a heart for a dog like Babe, she can be found in Page 75.

ELLIOTT Landmark Designs INC.

ELLIOTT Nestled within tall trees sits this 2,877 square foot country ranch home. The Elliott presents a covered porch area with many windows and skylights around the home. The dormer over the living room has a beautiful half moon window. Upon entering the Elliott, there is no obstruction of view, only open spaces. The family room is directly in front of the door, the dining room on the right, and the living room on the left. Both the living room and family room is vaulted with the two skylights. The family room also has a see-through fireplace into the dining room. A skylight near the fireplace provides the dining room with extra light during the winter months. The kitchen area is off the dining room. To the left is a deep walk-in pantry, ideal for holding those extras a family needs. The cooking area has convenience of appliances around the wall area, and an island bar in the center. A breakfast nook with a skylight completes the kitchen. The utility room, between the kitchen and garage, includes a sink, freezer, folding counter, and an area for the forced air unit and the water heater. Two bedrooms with wall closets are separated from the family room by a storage closet. Between the rooms is a full bath, with two vanity sinks, and a linen closet. The master suite has been thoughtfully provided with a number of extra amenities. Light pours through the french doors that lead onto the deck, while skylights brighten the main part of the suite, and the bath area. One wall of the full bath is shared by an oval tub, and a walk-in shower, while opposite are two vanity sinks. Near the bath is the finest luxury the Elliott offers, a green room with a spa. Also accessible to the family room has four skylights and five large windows. The light and spa makes this ideal as a greenhouse. Plants would thrive on the atmosphere of light and moisture. This home emits a feeling of graciousness and welcome. It would make an ideal home for the retired couple, the couple whose children come to visit, or a family with children at home. The green room would be ideal for club meetings or the teen party. For a study kit of the ELLIOTT (405-19LP60) send $14.95, to Landmark Designs, 33127 Saginaw Rd. Put your $ where your mouth is. Sign up to play in the Lakeland Newspapers - Oakwood Racquet & Health Club basketball League.

"Hoops on the Oakwood" starts playing Feb 12. The 8-game season is just around the corner, and there are still spots. Available for teams of 6-8 players. Total cost is $200, or $25 per player for 8 games of basketball fun.

Proceeds from the league will be donated to the family of Alex Paris, a Wauconda child fighting cancer.
